Guilford-Cotton

Mr. and Mrs. William Lee Guilford sojourned to the Adirondack Mountains following their wedding on Saturday, June 25, 1966. The former Miss Patricia Ann Cotton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle R. Cotton of Delevan R.D., was united in marriage to the son of Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy W. Guilford, 77 S. Main St., Belfast, in the Belfast Methodist Church.

The double-ring ceremony was performed at 2 p. m., by the Rev. Everett Hendrickson of Salamanca. The sanctuary was decorated with pink gladioli and white snapdragons as Miss Diane Haskins, organist accompanied John Karn with his solos.

Lace over satin was chosen by the bride for her attire as she was presented at the altar by her father. The floor-length gown was designed with a detachable chapel train. Her crown of pearls and rhinestones topped a shoulder-length veil, and she carried a cascade of yellow roses and white carnations.

Mrs. Gary Cotton of Friendship R.D., was matron-of-honor for her sister-in-law. The floor length gown featured a pink silk shantung skirt and a white bodice. A crown held her white nylon veiling in place and she carried a bouquet of Salal foliage and pink carnations.

The bridesmaids were dressed similarly to the honor attendant, with Miss Jeanne Soule of Addison in yellow and Mrs. Donald Hunt of Canadea in blue. Each gown was designed with a white bodice. They carried bouquets of Salal foliage and carnations to match their gowns.

Performing the duties of best man was Dennis Grastorf of Belfast. Seating the guests were Gary Cotton of Friendship, brother of the bride, Dale Guilford of Fillmore and Larry Cook of Andover, both cousins of the bridegroom; and David DeRock of Oramel.

A reception was held in the church dining room following the nuptials. Those attending the affair included the maternal grandmother of the bride, Mrs. Edythe Seeger of Buffalo and the bridegroom's maternal grandmother, Mrs. Addie Cook of Andover.

Both 1965 graduates of Belfast Central School, the bride is employed at Motorola Inc., Arcade. Her husband is a sophomore at Clarkson College of Technology at Potsdam where he plans to return in the Fall. He is employed at Clark Bros., Co., in Olean for the summer.

After returning from their wedding trip the couple are making their home in Belfast, N. Y.
