Roving Reporter

The following question was asked several students and teachers at A.C.S. What would you do with a "springbok"? Some of the answers were as follows:

Harold Fauzey — Tie it down before it got away.

Bill Merrick — Take it to band practice and see if it knew the chords to "Time Won't Let Me".

Elaine Burch — Laugh at it. (He! He!)

Steve Roeske — Throw it at Elaine Burch

Miss Husted — Give it to the seniors for a graduation present.

Miss Sullivan — Open it and then close it quick!

Earl Perry — Put it under a car.

Bob Congelli — I'd shoot it next deer season.

Maxson Clarke — Give it to Susan.

Linda Davis — I'll never tell!

A "springbok" is a small antelope similar to a gazelle.

It is better to water plants thoroughly and wet the soil down to a depth of several inches, at intervals of about a week, than to sprinkle a little water on the soil every day.

4-H News

The Valley Brook 4-H Club held a meeting on July 13 at the home of our leader, Mrs. Burch. We discussed plans for a camping trip, which will be held on July 29th. The place where it will be held will not be publicized until the camping trip is over, to insure that there will not be any intruders.
