

Lynn Marie Cable and William J. Waters Wed

Miss Lynn Marie Cable became the bride of William James Waters, Saturday morning at the Blessed Sacrament Church in Andover.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis E. Cable of Andover. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Waters of Greenwood.

The Rev. John R. Shea, pastor, performed the double-ring ceremony and celebrated the Wedding Mass before the altar decorated with white and pink gladioli. Traditional wedding music was played by guest organist, Mrs. John Crossan of Tonawanda. Guest soloist, John Crossan, sang "Ave Maria".

Miss Beth Ellen Cable, sister of the bride, was maid-of-honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Beverly Leonard of Canisteo, sister of the groom, and Mrs. George Zenger of Buffalo.

Richard Lobdell of Buffalo, cousin of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Leo Waters of Greenwood, brother of the bridegroom, and George Zenger of Buffalo.

The bride given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of white peau de soie made by her great aunt, Mrs. LeRoy Brundage of Andover. The princess line dress featured a bolero jacket of Alencon lace with round neckline and scalloped elbow-length sleeves. The chapel-length train detailed with Alencon lace edging fell from the Empire waistline. A Dior bow held her bouffant veil of tulle and she carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations and red sweetheart roses.

The maid-of-honor's gown was powder blue peau de soie with an Empire lace bodice. A bow of peau de soie held her circlet veil and she carried a colonial bouquet of white carnations and roses with a matching ribbon. The bridesmaids were similarly attired in pale pink ensembles.

A reception for 80 guests was held at Long Vue in Wellsville.

Miss Emily Alvord of Andover was in charge of cutting the four-tiered wedding cake crowned with miniature wedding bells. Miss Jeanne Campbell of Corning was in charge of the guest book. Miss Mary Gubbins of Arcade and Miss Ann McAndrew of Andover presided at the punch bowls.

Following a wedding trip to Birchwood in the Pocono Mountains, the couple will be at home at 52 Marne Road, Cheektowaga.

Pre-nuptials included a variety shower given by Miss Jeanne Campbell of Corning; a personal shower given by Miss Judy Hardy of Getzville and a linen shower given by Miss Ann McAndrew of Andover.

4-H News

On July 29th, 1966, the Valley Brook 4-H Club went on a camping trip. The junior leader, Betty Burch was in charge of all arrangements. Our leader, Mrs. Wellman Burch, gave us eggs for breakfast. We bought marshmallows and decided to take them out of the treasury. Since there are very few members in the club each member was allowed to take a guest. The guests were: Brenda Jackson, Debbie Roeske, Monica Dibble, and Karen Davis. The members who participated in this activity were: Kathy Spencer, Betty Burch, Nancy Burch and Kathy Burch.

Kathy Spencer made a surprise birthday cake for Betty Burch.

Everyone was up by 7 o'clock to help get breakfast. We had planned to go swimming, but it was too cold Saturday morning. Everyone had a very nice time. Betty Burch, Newsreporter
