

Mrs. Kenneth E. Wylie

Mary Jane Sackett and Kenneth E. Wylie Wed

Miss Mary Jane Sackett became the bride of Kenneth E. Wylie, Saturday morning, August 13, 1966 in the St. John Evangelist Church in Rochester. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Sackett of 34 Chestnut St., Andover and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Ernst Wylie of Kansas City, Mo.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. M. Richard Orlando, pastor of the St. Helen's Parish, before an altar decorated with tall baskets of white gladioli. Traditional wedding music was presented by the church organist and choir.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white silk peau de-soie, with atencion lace bodice fashioned with a modified square neckline and elbow length sleeves. The A-line skirt terminated into a detachable chapel length train with an Obi sash in the back. Her elbow-length veil of silk illusion was caught to a headpiece of roses and lily of the valley. She carried a cascade of orchids and ivy. Her jewelry was a string of pearls and matching earrings, a gift from the groom. The bride's gift to the bridegroom was a silver tie tie.

Mrs. Edward Dugan of Rochester, as matron-of-honor for her sister, wore a green sheath lined with matching headpiece and carried a cascade of yellow daisies. Mrs. Charles Becker of Silver Spring, Md., Mrs. Leonard Toole of Staten Island and Miss Marie Wood of Rochester were bridesmaids. They wore yellow linen sheaths with matching headpieces and carried cascades of yellow and white daisies.

Gary Maclock, Rochester, was the best man. Others were John Callaghan, Irwin Abrams, both of Rochester and Robert G. Sackett, Afton, Iowa, brother of the bride. The bride and bridegroom presented their attendants with silver monogrammed handkerchiefs and pocket knives.

The bride's mother wore a light blue silk dress with jewel neckline and matching jacket with white accessories and a corsage of orchids. The mother of the bride, groom wore a light blue lace dress with white accessories and a corsage of white orchids.

The bride's grandmother, Mrs. Frank Holmes of Andover, wore a willow green broadened dress with matching jacket, white accessories and a corsage of white daisies.

Following the ceremony, a reception for 200 guests was held at Glen Edith, Rochester. Out of town guests were from Silver Spring, Md., Kansas City and Sellsburg, Mo., Afton, Iowa, Wilmington, Del., Staten Island, Virginia, Watkins Glen, West Henrietta, Canisteo, Hornell, Wellsville and Andover.

For traveling the bride chose a yellow dress and coat ensemble, with matching accessories and a white orchid corsage.

On their return from a trip to the Virgin Islands and Puerto Rico, Mr. and Mrs. Wylie will reside at 60 Knollbrook Rd., Rochester.

The bride, a graduate of Andover Central School, and Rochester Business Institute, is a private secretary at Eastman Kodak, in Rochester. Mr. Wylie was graduated from Illinois Institute of Technology and served as an of-
