Racetrack Rambles Cont.

In the Sportsman Class there were plenty of cars on hand so that there were 24 cars in the line-up for the Feature. Incidentally, this turned out to end up with a surprise winner, as Don Halliday, No. 11/16, who has had his car laid up for several months, was back in action and had won the "Consy". However, Don proved that his first win wasn't an accident as he jumped out at a fairly early lead and staved off all attempts of the challengers and former feature winners to pick up the "Chekker" — and a much deserved win.

In the Modern Class, there was a different winner for each race with Warren Kinney, No. 16, taking the 1st heat; Basil Shutt, No. 13, winning the 2nd; and Bob Gee, No. 260, picking up the "Consy".

In the Feature, the lead changed hands several times with Paul Hidek, No. 6%, gradually working his way up into the No. 2 slot and after a superb duel lasting several laps, finally getting a clear shot at the No. 1 slot when the lead car swung a little too wide on the No. 2 turn — and went roaring by to pick up another win to add to his fast-growing string of victories. Butch Harris No. 3A, who had beaten Paul the night before over at Mills, met up with a piece of bad luck by losing a wheel and ended up in a rather precarious position in the middle of the track just beyond the No. 4 turn. This left him stranded high and dry for the last few laps of the race — behind the wheel of his car — with the rest of the cars roaring by him on both sides. With the cars strung out all around the track, Butch just didn't have time to "bail out" and head for safety — so just had to sweat it out — and hope that all of the drivers would miss him each time they came roaring out of that dangerous No. 4 turn.

For a brief re-cap of the day's racing results: In the Sportsman Class — Levi Henry, No. 3D, won the 1st heat; Chuck Kennison, No. 91, took the 2nd; and Don Halliday, No. 11/16, the "Consy". In
