

SOCIAL NOTES

Mrs. E. J. Allen entertained the members of the L. L. Bridge Club at a 7:30 dessert at her home on Center St., Thursday evening, September 15th. Honors were presented to Mrs. Fay Boyd, Mrs. Almon Wood, Mrs. Frank Holmes and guest, Mrs. William Joyce.

Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Baker and David Ordiway of Canaseraga entertained seventeen little friends Saturday, September 17th in honor of Robin Ordiway's third birthday anniversary. Ice cream and a birthday cake made by Mrs. Baker were served. Robin received many lovely gifts.

Jurors have been drawn for the October terms of Allegany County Grand Jury and Trial Jury, which will begin October 3rd at the Court House in Belmont. Those from this area named for the Grand Jury term are Burton D. Billings and David Stutely Grover, both of Independence; Trial Jurors will report for the term of County Court which begins October 17. They are: Gerald Maynard McClure, Ruby Helen Ormsby and Gertrude Rogers Cable, all of Andover.

The Business and Professional Women's Club held its 6:30 dinner-meeting at the Blessed Sacrament Church Hall, Tuesday evening. Dr. Finla Crawford was the guest speaker.

A pre-autumn frost touched this area Thursday night and Friday morning amid early-morning temperatures that dipper below freezing, and the Weather Bureau forecast more of the same for the next few days.

A wholesale plumbing firm has opened for business in Hornell at the former A. J. Deer plant on West St. The firm known as Irr Supply Centers, will supply wholesale plumbing, heating and air conditioning supplies to the installing contractors. The firm will employ eight persons. Gary Tardelli of Canisteo is the plant manager.

The 1966 Naples Grape Festival is scheduled for this week-end, September 23, 24, and 25. Exhibits by other area corporations also will be featured. The three-day Festival begins with a firemen's torchlight parade and the Annual Festival Ball providing excitement on Friday night, Sept. 23. Costumed Bavarian folk bands, yodelers and dancers will also be presented. Saturday's activities will be highlighted by a two-hour Grape Parade which will traverse the length of the village starting at 2 p. m.

Nearly 1,900 students, an all-time high, are expected to enroll this fall at State University Agricultural and Technical College at Alfred. Freshmen will arrive at the campus at 1 p. m., on Friday, Sept. 16. Both freshmen and seniors will register Sept. 17, while classes will begin at 8:30. In addition to a record enrollment this fall, the Alfred State Tech faculty is also at an all-time high with some 200 persons now employed as teachers or in some technical or administrative capacity. The teaching faculty alone numbers about 155.

The summer was a prosperous one for the tourist business in New York State and prospects for the fall season are bright, as the beautiful foliage display develops reports the State Commerce Department. Excellent weather and the general prosperity contributed to the success of the season. New and improved highways brought more visitors to many areas of the state. The New York Thruway broke all records for volume of traffic which is expected to continue high for the next month.

On Saturday, October 8th there will be an auction of new and used merchandise on the lawn of the First Methodist Church in Dansville, from 11:30 a. m., to 5 p. m. There will also be home-made baked goods, a sale of pedigreed rummage, and refreshments available for lunch or snack. It is only a short drive to Dansville, so visit this auction, enjoy the scenery, have a good time and help a worthy cause. You may find that thing you could always do without, but just can't resist. adv.
