A voluminous skirt over hoops and chapel train of tiers of lace, fell from the natural waistline. Her elbow length veil of tulle was held by a jeweled tiara and she carried a bouquet of white mums and pom-poms.

Local Children's Pictures To Be Taken Free For Publication In The News

Thursday, Oct. 13 is the big day for the picture taking of young youngsters. The Andover News is having pictures taken of all children who are brought by their parents or other guardian to the Ken Vars Men's & Boys' Wear Store in Andover between 1 p. m. and 5:30 p. m., absolutely free of charge.

The Andover News wants a picture of your child to print in its forthcoming feature, "Citizens of Tomorrow", a series of photographic studies of local children. Children who have been photographed for this feature in previous years are especially invited to return, so that we may see how they have changed. The more we get the better the feature will be, so the cooperation of the mothers and fathers is urged.

It often seems to parents that children are little one minute and are grown up the next, so fast does a child's growing stage pass. Here is a splendid opportunity to catch a likeness of your child or children at the present stage for the pleasure you will get out of it in future years and for the pleasure you will enjoy in seeing it in print. You will want to clip it from this, your home town news paper, and preserve it for the youngster when he or she grows up.

There is absolutely no charge or obligation for taking the pictures. Parents don't even have to be a subscriber to the Andover News nor even a reader. You do not have to purchase pictures either, though you may obtain additional prints by arranging direct with the Studio representative if you want them. This is entirely up to you! No appointment is necessary. There is no age limit.

If you wish to make an appointment, phone Miss Connie Lewis at 478-5353.
