

GREENWOOD NEWS

Grace Young, Reporter

The Greenwood Methodist Church had an inspiring anniversary celebration Sunday for the 90th year of the dedication of the church building. There was a good attendance, well interspersed with home comers. Former Pastor, The Rev. Robert Jones of Williamsville was the guest speaker. His theme was "Christians must come apart but also must go out and make themselves felt in the community." The Choir sang "The Little White Church" and special numbers were given by Miss Sandra Greene playing her baritone horn and Miss Cheryl Hussey singing a solo, both accompanied by Mrs. June Rollins.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton York and teachers had regular Church School Session in the Hall for children through the sixth grade. About a hundred members and guests gathered in the sanctuary for a memory hour in charge of Mrs. Daniel Redmond and Miss Grace Young. The Rev. Harold Wass and Mrs. Wass from Bath, a retired former Pastor, was present and spoke. He was given a plant for the minister who had walked the farthest in serving the parish. Letters were read by Miss Young from former Pastors and their families and members who had served the church. Mrs. Carl Thompson sang a solo at this hour. Guests who spoke included Mr. and Mrs. Milton Chaffee, Glen Scribner, Mrs. Glenn Freeland of Canistota, Mrs. Hubert Foster of Whitesville, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Brundage of Port Allegany, Pa. Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Nearpass of Morton, Mrs. Carl Thompson of Avoca, Mrs. Harland Knight of Jacksonville, Mrs. Elmer Gifford of Buffalo and Mrs. Virgil Hussey who gave greeting from Dr. and Mrs. Alvin Densmore.

Dinner was served at 12:15 in the Social Hall for about 80, in charge of Mrs. Herman Mullen. Mrs. Marion Streeter, Mrs. Harriet Redmond, Mrs. Robert Hoagland, Mrs. Walter Jackson. Serving coffee and kool-aid were June Mullen, Joan and Beverly Spencer. The Invocation and Benediction were given by Virgil Hussey. Mrs. Redmond gave a booklet to Mrs. Orville Matthews, a 50-year member, The Rev. and Mrs. Robert Jones, guests of the day. Miss Grace Young, Chairman of the Membership Committee in charge of the event. In absentia to Mrs. Blanche Goodno, the oldest member and Mrs. M. D. Rogers, a 50 year member.

Virgil Hussey, lay leader, read a letter of resignation from the Rev. Roger Williams, due to disability, effective December 1, 1966. Rev. and Mrs. Williams have served the Parish well for two and a half years and we regret to have them leave.

The tin box and items it contained, found in the cornerstone when repaired in 1965 were on display in the church entry. A collection of pictures and the Memorial Book with clippings were shown in the Adult Sunday School room. The Membership Committee thanks everyone for the good cooperation. Mrs. Roger Williams attended the services.

The Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints had a guest speaker, Elder Eugene Bryant of Rochester, Sunday. His family accompanied Elder Bryant to Greenwood for the services.

B. E. Burger, Welfare Officer of Greenwood, announces that the surplus food will be delivered in town Thursday morning, November 10th. Families receiving food please bring the signed card and containers to carry it home.

Mrs. Louise Nye, President of the Firemen's Auxiliary, announced that lunches will be served at the Fire Hall 11:30 to 8:00 p. m. Election Day for the benefit of the Auxiliary. The ladies will serve onion stew, chili, hot dogs.

The Steuben County Republican caravan was in Greenwood Thursday afternoon so candidates could meet the people. Committeemen Archie Stephens and Orville Matthews were on hand to introduce the candidates and help pass out literature.

RM31C Robert Bianco rented a home in Fall River, Mass., and Sunday took his wife, the former Suzanne Kernan and their 8-week-old daughter, Bobbi Sue to their new home.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Green and family have rented the Ott property on the Andover Road and moved last week. Mrs. Green and children have been staying with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Hollenbeck.

Mrs. Milo Downey is a surgical patient at the Bethesda Hospital in North Hornell.

Guy Donaldson had a heart condition. Complications developed and he had his right leg amputated just above the knee at the Bethesda Hospital last Wednesday. He was reported improving and is in good spirits.

Mrs. Grace Holt had a cataract operation Monday at the St. James-Mercy Hospital, Hornell.

Mrs. Ruth York of Andover spent several days last week with her son and family, Mr. and Mrs.

Clinton York. She attended the 90th Anniversary Sunday at the Methodist Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Higgins went to Wheeling, West Virginia over the week-end. Denise and Dean Higgins stayed with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Wallace.

Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Allen and daughter took Ronald Holt to the Corning Glass Center Sunday for his birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Gifford brought her aunt, Miss Sabrey Stehens home Saturday after spending two weeks in Buffalo.

Mr. and Mrs. Harland Knight of Jacksonville, spent Saturday to Monday with her sister, Miss Grace Young.

Mrs. G. D. Webster of Cleveland, Ohio, came Wednesday to spend a week with Clarence Webster and Mrs. Elva Sherman.

Mrs. Clyde Zeltwanger, Sr., of Canistota was a guest of her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Green. They all attended the Anniversary Services at the Methodist Church, where Sandra was a soloist.

Greenwood Central School News

The Sophomore Class of the Greenwood Central are sponsoring a dance called "Wipe-out". Committees appointed by Pat Dempsey are: work list, Lanny Holt; posters, Kathy Koehler; tickets, Linda Murphy; decoration, Niki Kernan; chaperons are Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon Atherton and Mrs. Charity McCormick. Music by "Shade's of Tyme" featuring Tom Seamons on drums.

Other Sophomore activities include candy and pop sales daily from 3:15 to 3:30 and at all sports events through out the year. Plans also include assisting at record hops and a Christmas party.

The first meeting of a new club was held at Greenwood Central School with Mrs. Margaret Fehl sponsor. It will be a chapter of the Junior New York State Historical Association named for Levi Davis who built the first framed house in the Greenwood area. A constitution was adopted and 16 members joined. The club is planning many tours which includes the salt spring used by early settlers from Trousburg to make salt. This is on the property of Robert Hoagland, principal.

Twelve members are planning to attend the Yorkers Jamboree at Bath, November 5th. Officers were elected: Lekoy Bassett, president; Pamela Holt, vice-president; Thomas York, treasurer; Kerry O'Brien, secretary; Wanda Muliken, school news reporter; Steven Harkenrider, student council representative.

On Tuesday, November 8th the school is announcing open house from 7:30 until 9:30. Report cards will go out on Monday, Nov. 7th, with the first 10 week marks. Parents will be able to discuss their questions with the teachers and see several new educational techniques and pieces of equipment. Parents of students, Kindergarten through 12, are cordially invited.

Don't Drive After Drinking!

Us Plymouth Dealers will do most anything to win you over

Fury '67—4 Door Hardtop

Holds off to you and the captivating new Plymouth Fury! Suede good looks. Bigger. Bolder. And still at a price that's all heart.

What do we have to do to win you over? Throw a tickertape parade? Carry you to our showroom piggyback? There isn't much we won't do to get you and '67 Plymouth Fury together. It's the year's great temptation! Almost four inches longer this year. More luxurious inside and out. And an engine and color selection that goes on and on. With so much going for it, would you expect the price to still be low? It is! Plymouth Fury! The win-you-over car from the do-most-anything dealer.

Plymouth '67

AUTHORIZED DEALERS CHRYSLER
MOTORS CORPORATION

See your Plymouth Dealer ♥ He's all heart.

Pfuntner Sales & Service
Wellville, New York