

GREENWOOD NEWS

Grace Young, Reporter

Town Clerk, Marjorie York reports that she received a total of $1,608.25 for licenses in October and November. She sold 204 Big Game; 14 Non-Resident Big Game; 16 Non-Resident Hunting; 9 Archery and 119 Hunting Licenses. Game Party Licenses came from Albany so she couldn't report on how many were used locally. She will assist B. E. Burger, Welfare Officer in the distribution of Soup and Food this Thursday morning.

G. C. S. Basketball non-league games were not included last week. The boys went to Andover Central School Tuesday night, December 6. Woodhull High School came here Friday night, December 9th and Whitesville Central comes here next Tuesday, December 13.

Douglas Cornell, member of Steuben County Conservation Board went with the committee Tuesday to attend a meeting at New York City, returning home Friday. Thomas Coleman helped the family with the chores.

Mr. and Mrs. Elton White left Monday, November 28 for DeLand, Florida to spend the winter months.

Local people were shocked to learn of the accidental death of Alfred Williamson, 16, in a one-car crash Sunday P. M., November 27. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Williamson of Woodhull and former residents of Greenwood. He was survived by his parents, two brothers, Lynn, a student at Canastota and David; grandparents, Mrs. Ordo Williamson of Greenwood and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Beardsley of Canastota, also local relatives were Mr. and Mrs. George Williamson and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cornell and family. The funeral was Wednesday.

Fred Hillman of Ransomville had the misfortune to fall while hunting and broke his hip. He was taken to the St. James Mercy Hospital and a pin has been put in. He was with a party on the former Murray farm and was just off the road when he fell. He will be a hospital patient several weeks. Mrs. Hillman is at her home in Greenwood.

George James Merry, Jr., infant son of Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Merry, was a pneumonia patient at the St. James Mercy Hospital where he entered Wednesday.

Mrs. Clair Kernan entered the Bethesda Hospital, North Hornell, Monday, where she is a surgical patient.

Mrs. Harlan Waters is assisting Mrs. Clinton Holt in the Kernan Grocery mornings this week. Mr. Kernan is there in the late afternoon.

A3C Stanley Murray, Jr., had a two weeks leave at home and left Friday morning for the Kirkland Mo., Missile Base. He called his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Murray, Sr., Saturday to tell them he had arrived.

Mrs. Mildred Clark was given a surprise house warming by her new neighbors and relatives at her new home Thursday night. Refreshments were served to 30 including her sisters, Mrs. Cady from Troupsburg; Mrs. Florence Moore, daughter, Mrs. Charles Bettinger and family of Canastota; Mrs. Gary Clark and nieces, Mrs. Walter Baker and family of Canastota; and Mrs. Richard Moore. Mrs. Clark was presented a purse of money.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Moore and four children have moved from the Atkins house on Christian Hollow Road to the McCormick house vacated by Mrs. Clark.

The WSCS served dinner Tuesday noon at the Methodist Church to the District Dairymen's League hosted by the Bennetts Creek Local. Mrs. Freda Stephens and Mrs. Geraldine Lamphier were co-chairmen. The December meeting of the Society will be next Thursday afternoon at the Church. The ladies will bring supplies for the Christmas Cheer Boxes for shut-ins, also some part for the program.

The Woman's Division of the RLDS Church met this week to pack Christmas Boxes for Veterans in the Country. They sent several boxes last month to overseas servicemen.

The Methodist Church School received an extra collection Sunday to send to Miss Eleanor Acker at Dana, Ky. She will buy gifts for her Sunday School children who would not have much Christmas. The Primary Department will have a Christmas Party at the Church, Saturday, December 17, with the program Sunday, December 18th.

Mrs. M. P. Wheeler returned home Monday after spending the Thanksgiving Holidays with her sister, Mrs. William Hemker and other relatives at Mansfield, Pa.

R. D.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kirk and family spent the Holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leland Kirk of Ithaca.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Miller and daughter of Rochester, Mrs. Vivian Lawrence and daughter, Nancy of Corning were also guests of their parents for Thanksgiving.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Hawkins of Bath were Sunday guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Murray. In the afternoon they took her mother and grandmother, Mrs. Pearl Hillman to Hornell to visit Fred Hillman at the St. James Mercy Hospital.

The State Highway men were in Town sawing the stumps to the ground of trees cut in the Spring.

Seymour Heckman has a contract with the Atlantic Company to take down the service station and small buildings and clean up the lot. This is located at the intersection of Route 17 and 248 in the center of Town.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Sampson of Niagara Falls returned home Sunday after spending a week with his sister, Mr. and Mrs. George Puffer.

Medicine is so special today that patients have to learn to diagnose themselves in order to know which specialist to call. — Attica Hub, Attica, Ohio.

The "Deadline" Is Approaching "DEADLINE" FOR CHRISTMAS GIFT SHOPPING

For Joyful Giving Why Not Give A Gift of Beauty With One of Our BEAUTY GIFT CERTIFICATES
Available for All Types of Beauty Service At

Vogue Beauty Salon

Main Street
Phone: 478-3244

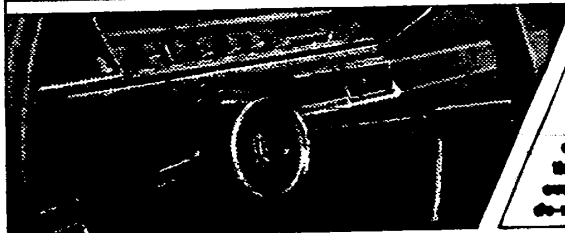

Andover, N. Y.
Jean Lynch, Prop.

Us Plymouth Dealers will do most anything to win you over

Fury 4-Door Hardtop

Hold off to you and the captivating new Plymouth Fury! Seize good looks. Bigger. Bolder. And still at a price that's all heart.

What do we have to do to win you over? Throw a ticker-tape parade? Carry you to our showroom piggy-back? There isn't much we won't do to get you and '67 Plymouth Fury together. It's the year's great temptation! Almost four inches longer this year. More luxurious inside and out. And an engine and color selection that goes on and on. With so much going for it, would you expect the price to still be heart? It is! Plymouth Fury! The win-you-over car from the do-most-anything dealer.

Plymouth '67

APPROVED DEALER

See your Plymouth Dealer  He's all heart.

Pfuntner Sales & Service

Wellsville, New York