Greenwood Central School News

Nineteen junior and senior members, and their advisor, Mrs. Shirley Cook of the Greenwood Central School attended the FFA Southern District "B" Fall Rally which was held November 19th at Marathon, New York. "FHA'S Formula" was the theme for the rally. The program was built on hobbies and the speakers spoke on how they occupy leisure time, are fun and could lead to a successful career.

Sincere thanks went to the planning committee which included the district officers and their advisors. Our officer Joanne Hanbach, vice-president, with other members and advisor sent invitations to 65 home economics departments in the district previous to the rally.

The Chess Club with James DeMarte, advisor is starting a tournament. Each person who has had at least one year of experience will be placed in the Class "A" division and those who are new members to the club this year will be placed in the "B" division.

Every person will play each member of his division twice. The person who has the most points (2 for a win, 1 for a draw and none for a loss) will win the tournament.

The Greenwood Chapter of the FFA chose Barbara Meehan as their Chapter sweetheart for the school year of 1966-67. The Chapter is honored for all the awards she has won for cattle showing.

The Yearbook Club sponsored a dance November 22nd with Joanne Hanbach in charge and James DeMarte emcee. A large crowd gathered to dance to the music of "Little John and the Friars". The combo consists of Greenwood boys and they are John Mullikin, Jerry Burley, Roger York and Ron Greene. The combo was making its public debut and was quite well accepted. Especially entertaining was a drum solo by Ron Greene.
