Grange News

A surprise was arranged for the Andover Grange and their visitors last Wednesday evening. Five members of the Keshqua Junior Grange came from Tuscarora in Livingston County and put on a delightful one-act play entitled "Christmas on the Farm".

Accompanied by their Jr. Master, Mrs. Barbara Bailey, were Vicky Barner, Jr. Grange Master, Paul Bailey, recipient of the N. Y. S. Super Jr. Grange award; Gloria Edick, Past Master and Chairman of Service & Hospitality; Susan Hall, Past Master and Sec'y and Alan Till. It is of special interest that the Keshqua Jr. Grange was chosen the Outstanding Jr. Grange of N. Y. State in 1966.

Recitations were given by Brian Lynch and Jimmie Perkins.

A flute solo by Bonnie Mattison "O Holy Night" and a trombone solo, by Chris Mattison, "Silent Night" were all the more appreciated because each was played without accompaniment.

The program was closed with a solemn New Year Candlelight Dedication Service. Blue and Gold the Grange colors predominated the Christmas tree and gifts were exchanged by all who were present.

The theme for the regular meeting on January 11th will be Grange Policy.
