

Mandzak-Campbell

Miss Jeanne Anne Campbell became the bride of John M. Mandzak on Wednesday, January 11, 1967 in St. Mary's Church at Corning, New York at 2 o'clock.

The bride is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claire C. Backus of Andover, New York. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Mandzak of South Corning, New York.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Thomas Brennan before the Gothic altar.

Mrs. Ronald Kniffin of Rochester, New York and George Farmer of 107 W. Pulteney St., Corning, were the couple's only attendants. The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Ralph A. Allen of Andover.

For her wedding, the bride chose a tailored Harris tweed suit of unbleached wool; a crocheted, white wool shell; and a white lace mantilla veil. Her only jewelry was an heirloom, pendant watch. She carried a bouquet of white carnations.

The matron-of-honor wore a paisley wool suit, brown accessories, a beige mantilla veil and carried a bouquet of white carnations.

The mother of the groom chose a one-piece cranberry wool dress and winter white accessories. Her corsage was of white carnations.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the couple's home for the bridal party and the immediate families. The bride's table was decorated with lace and a three-tiered wedding cake, topped by a miniature bride and groom. Dainty refreshments were served and a champagne toast was given in honor of the newlyweds.

Guests attended from Corning, Andover, Rochester and Wellsville, New York.

The bride resides at 63 W. First Street, Corning. The groom is a member of the U.S. Army and is stationed at Fort Dix, New Jersey.

Mrs. Mandzak is a graduate of Andover Central School and Alfred University. Mr. Mandzak is a graduate of Corning Community College.

Mrs. Ralph Burgett Feted At Retirement Party

The members of the Andover Methodist Choir entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Huffcut, Thursday evening, in honor of Mrs. Ralph Burgett, who has resigned as organist in the Methodist Church effective January 1, 1967.

Dainty refreshments were served to the husbands and wives of the members at small tables decorated in the keeping of the season. There were twenty guests present.

A social evening was enjoyed and a gift was presented to Mrs. Ralph Burgett for her long and faithful services.
