

GREENWOOD NEWS

Grace Young, Reporter

A former resident, Matt L. Brundage of Port Allegany, Pa., died Thursday morning, February 9, 1967 at the Bradford Hospital where he was an overnight patient. Mr. Brundage was in the hardware business with his son, Donald at Port Allegany. He was born in Greenwood 80 years ago the son of the late George and Mae Brundage. For many years he and his father ran a garage in town. Matt was a member of the Greenwood Central School Board at the time of Centralization and also served as Town Clerk several years. Mr. and Mrs. Brundage improved five different houses in town, they remodeled when they lived in them. They moved to Wellsville about twenty-five years ago to do war work and have lived at Port Allegany about ten years. Matt married Rose Allen in 1911 and they celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary at the Greenwood Methodist Church, December 1961 where they are both members.

He is survived by his wife and one son, Donald at Port Allegany and three daughters, Mrs. Pauline Graves, Mrs. Norma Gee, both of Wellsville and Mrs. Carolyn Brundage of Scio; 12 grandchildren and several great grandchildren.

Memorial services were held at Port Allegany Saturday night and the funeral was held at the Greenwood Methodist Church at 2:30 p. m., Sunday, February 12. The Rev. Glenn Bucher, Pastor of the Wellsville Methodist Church officiated. Burial was in the Greenwood Cemetery.

The Annual Scout Banquet of Greenwood's two Scouting Units, Pack 62 and Troop 62, was held Wednesday night, February 8 in the Central School Auditorium with about 135 present.

The after dinner program was presented by Institutional Representative Jay Bangs. James Wall, District Activities Chairman of Hornell presented the new Troop Charter to Mr. Bangs of the Methodist Church and the Pack Charter to Fred Kirk of the Volunteer Firemen.

Ray Clark, District Scout Executive showed slides of activities at Camp Gorton. Robert Ingalls, Scoutmaster of Troop 67 of Hornell was guest speaker. He told of the founding of the Scout government and the principles of Scouting.

Robert Hoagland, Cubmaster presented membership cards to the Cub Scouts and introduced each boy. Ed Mullen, presented membership cards to members of the Troop and presented badges and awards that had been earned by members of the Troop. It was noted that in a membership of thirty-five boys, five are now Eagle Scouts and two more have now met all the requirements.

The Scouter of Honor Award which is presented by the leader of the Troop to adults who have done much to promote Scouting in Greenwood, was presented to Jay Bangs for his work as Institutional Representative Committee Treasurer and Merit Badge Counselor also to Robert Ingalls for setting a high standard of Scouting in the entire Council and to Mary Mullen for her years of service to the Troop and also as Den Mother to the Pack.

The opening and closing ceremonies were handled by Troop 62. The Invocation and Benediction were given by Robert Hoagland.

The Donkey Basketball Game drew a large crowd at the Central School Tuesday night. It was very funny as the Donkeys are trained to drop their head and throw the rider and other frustrating acts for the riders. The faculty managed to do well and got more baskets than the firemen. George Angell was auctioneer for Baking at the half with teachers delivering. He reported $40 from that part. Thanks to many families that donated.

The National Honor Society had a Special Assembly at Greenwood Central School Monday afternoon. Four students, John McCaffery, a Senior and Mary Lou Harkenrider, William Lewis and Edward Mullen Juniors were tapped for membership. Two Sophmores, Patrick Dempsey and Terry Hunt, were tapped for probationary membership. The theme for Grades 6-12 was "Students of Today" Tomorrow's Citizens. Probationary members of last year: Mary Sky, Diane Smith and Roger York, received their pins and membership cards from Mrs. Margaret Fehl, Chapter advisor. Duane, Chaffee, Chapter President and only full member, presided at the program. James Grimm of Hornell spoke in place of Rep. Charles Goodell, whose plane was grounded in Washington, D. C. He spoke of responsible action and concern of all people in Government and included a message from Goodell. Principa Hoagland conducted the introduction ceremony.

Cpl. Reed Lowrey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Reed Lowrey Sr., arrived home the first of February from San Diego, California where he was trained in radio repair. His leave is until February 20, when he goes to Camp Pendleton, Calif. for overseas duty, expecting to go to Viet Nam.

Miss Carolyn Bassett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carol Bassett, began work February 6th for the Rochester Telephone Company in Rochester. She received training last Fall in Data Processing.

Elmer Stocum of Canisteo called on Jerry Burd Thursday. Mr. Burd fell on the street two weeks ago and has been house bound since, not able to come downstairs for several days.

Mrs. Anna Cheesman who was taken to the St. James Mercy Hospital last week, fell at her home and broke her hip and arm so badly it hasn't been set.

Mrs. Franz Teribury suffered a stroke at her home Wednesday and was taken to Bethesda Hospital. Her speech and right arm was affected.

Eleven women attended the World Day of Prayer program at the Methodist Church Thursday night. Because of the illness of Mrs. Geraldine Lamphier, Miss Lynette Hale was organist and several women took part in the services.

Lynn Redmond, a student at Allegany College at Meadeville Pa., arrived home Friday night for a week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Redmond.

Lincoln's Birthday was observed Monday, February 13 and the Central School, Greenwood Office of First State Bank of Canisteo were closed.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wolfanger of Bath were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Matthews in honor of the birthday of her brother, Orville, on February 14.

Mrs. Jennie Carney of Nunda was a week-end guest of Mrs. Mary Streeter and they attended the funeral of M. L. Brundage Sunday at the Methodist Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Banks of Horseheads, R.D., were Sunday guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Banks and attended the funeral of her uncle, M. L. Brundage.

Stanley Murray took Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hillman to their home at Ransomville Friday. They had spent two and a half months in her home here after he fractured his leg hunting season.

Greenwood Central School News

Chief Petty Officer Little of the Navy Recruiting Office at Hornell spoke on February 1st, to the history students of Greenwood Central School. Officer Little spoke on the "Why of Viet Nam" — giving the background of the trouble in Viet Nam and the reasons why we should support our government. The presentation was most interesting and informative.

Winter Week-end, sponsored by the F.H.A., will soon be in progress.

ress. There will be snow sculpturing on February 25th from 1:00 until 2:30.

Carol Warriner, a Senior of the Greenwood Central School, has been named Betty Crocker Home-maker of Tomorrow for 1967. She scored highest in a written knowledge and attitude examination taken by senior girls recently, and is now eligible for state and national scholarship awards.

She is taking Home Economics 3, and last year took Homemaking 5 and 8. She has been accepted at Alfred Ag-Tech in the nursing program.

Carol is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Warriner, Greenwood, R.D., New York.

A large attendance gathered at the Greenwood Central School Tuesday night, February 7 to watch the Donkey Basketball Game. It was for the benefit of the scholarship fund and all the profits went to the fund. Profits totaled about $230.00; $167.50 door receipts; $52.50 from the bake sale and the baked goods were donated by faculty members and parents; $10.00 from the Junior class popcorn sales. Playing in the game were: Firemen; Clair Austin, James DeMarte, Bryon Higgins, Irwin Allen, Stanley Holt, Richard Nye and George Adderly Faculty; Jeff Hibbard, Sheldon Atherton, Douglas Printy, Jay Bangs, Robert Hoagland and Ray Duke.

Persons in charge of the bake sale were: Penny Bangs, Shirley Cook, Margaret Fehl, Virginia York, Eleanor Lamphier. The Scholarship Committee was: Rob't Hoagland, Pat Higgins, Kathryn Krusen and Patricia Devlin. These are just a few of the people who insured the success of this program and the faculty, school, and Scholarship Committee would like to thank all who helped.

Prefix Name Filed For Local Dairy Herd Owners

Kenneth Waters, Andover, N. Y., will have the exclusive use of the prefix "Waters" in naming all Registered Holstein dairy animals bred in that herd.

This prefix name use has been

Judith Lynn Woodruff

Announce Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. William V. Woodruff of Andover, N. Y., announce the engagement of their daughter, Judith Lynn, to Lawrence Reed, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reed of Caledonia, N. Y.

Miss Woodruff graduated from Andover Central School in 1963 and is a senior at the State University of New York at Buffalo, majoring in English.

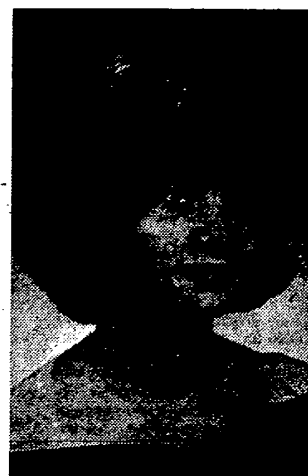

Mr. Reed, a Caledonia High School and a graduate of the State University of New York at Buffalo is now studying for his Master's degree at the State University of New York at Brockport, N. Y.

A Fall wedding is planned.

granted by Holstein Friesian Association of America and has become a part of official breed records at the organization's headquarters in Brattleboro, Vermont.

Nearly 1,500 prefixes are reserved for Registered Holstein breeders each year. Over 42,000 now on file are used to give distinctive names to home-bred cattle. Reservation and use of these prefix names became an active membership requirement in 1965.

By using a prefix name for all

Jane Marie Cook

Announce Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. R. Kenneth Cook of Andover, N. Y., are proud to announce the engagement of their daughter, Jane Marie, to Lyle L. Ostrander, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle J. Ostrander of Proctor Terrace in Wellsville, N. Y.

Miss Cook is a graduate of Andover Central School and Central City Business Institute to Syracuse, N. Y. She is employed at Alfred University, Office of Development, at Alfred, N. Y.

Her fiancé, who recently returned from a tour of duty with the U.S. Army in Viet Nam, is a graduate of Wellsville High School, Class of '63. PFC Ostrander is stationed at Ft. Devens, Mass. Wedding plans are incomplete.

animals, the purebred Holstein breeder establishes a "trade mark" which is used in all published information concerning the performance of his dairy animals.

The origination of prefix names often stems from farm names, family name combinations, or unique geographical or historical features of the farmstead. Thus the exclusive nature of each prefix is preserved in selecting a "one and only" term.

STOP: Any Hornell Police Officer

And Buy Your Tickets To The

THIRTY-FIRST ANNUAL

POLICEMAN'S BALL

Sponsored By

MAPLE CITY POLICE CLUB

Hornell, New York

March 11, 1967

PUBLIC INVITED

Dancing At Any 1 of 3 Places:

NEW SHERWOOD HOTEL —

Don Jones Orchestra — Dress: Semi-Formal

MOOSE CLUB — Pres White Orchestra Informal

V.F.W. CLUB — "D & C" Trio — Country Music

Dancing: — 9 - 2

TICKETS $1.00 PER PERSON

Tickets May Be Purchased From Any Police Officer
Or At The Door The Night Of The Dance