

GREENWOOD NEWS

Grace Young, Reporter

Greenwood Central School was represented at the Junior High All-County Festival at Avoca Mar 3-4. Mrs. Joan Eike, Music Teacher, entered Karen Smith, playing her baritone in the Band. In the Chorus were Pamela Holt and Starla Jackson, Sopranos; Ann McCormick, Alto; Tom York and Steve Hunt, Tenors; and Steve Harkarider, Bass. There was a rehearsal Friday night and Saturday and the Concert Saturday night.

The Senior High All-County Festival will be at the Corning Glass Center Auditorium April 7-8. Representing G.C.S. will be Band, Gennie Murphy, Kathy Donaldson, Clarinet; Roger York, Trumpet; Alice Hanbach, Cornet; Mary Lou Harkarider, Baritone; Kathy Koehler, Cornet, will play in the Wind Ensemble. In the Chorus will be Mary Sky, Mary Ellen Hanbach, Soprano; Diane Smith, Alto; Jerry Burley and John Mullikin, Bass.

Greenwood Central School Band and Chorus will present the Spring Concert in the School March 31 at 8 p. m. The Band is working for new uniforms so will sell tickets for this concert. They are preparing a good program and ask for your attendance to show interest in their work.

The Junior-Senior Fish Fry was this Wednesday night at the School. James Randall of Castile was Chef for the Fish and French Fries. Students and mothers were assigned tasks and hours to work. Proceeds are to be used for the Annual Junior-Senior Prom to be held at the School May 13.

The Rev. Gerald Wolter Baptized four children at the Methodist Church Sunday morning. Children were: Shawn Antony and Melana Ann DeMarte, children of Mr. and Mrs. James DeMarte; and Kimberly Elaine and Melinda Kaye Moore, children of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Moore.

Mrs. DeMarte's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Morton of Woodhull and her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Foster and family of South Canisteo, attended the service.

Nine members attended the WSCS meeting at the Methodist Church Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Albert Lamphier reviewed First Peter to conclude the study book, "Christian Being and Doing". The next meeting will be April 20 at 7:30 p. m. Mrs. Virginia York will bring the devotions and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jackson will show pictures of their trip to California. Refreshments were served by the hostesses Lana Rogers and Grace Young. Mrs. Roger Williams attended from Andover.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith received word from their son, Stanley that he was sent to Amarillo Air Force Base in Texas.

The Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints had a guest speaker Elder Ronald Krahl of Wilson Sunday. His family was Sunday dinner guests of Elder and Mrs. Carol Bassett. March 12, Robert McLean of Buffalo was guest speaker. He is a Professor at the University of Buffalo. Dinner was served at the church. Elder Bassett announces that the Special Easter Service will begin at 9:30 and take up the Sunday School hour.

The First Aid Course scheduled at the Central School Tuesday night proved very popular. 62 people registered and it was decided to divide the class to meet Tuesday and Thursday evenings for five weeks. Some had signed up who could not come Tuesday, so Thursday another class of 15 was started.

The Junior-Senior Classes advertised the Fish Fry very well. It was a bad night for weather but including take-out orders they thought 250 were served. They ran out of fish by 7 p. m. Some out-of-town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Reid Mattison and family of Andover, Thomas Speed and son and Mr. and Mrs. Merrill McCormick of Canisteo. Net profit was $201.

Thomas Murray of West Greenwood and grandson, Larry Lewis left Monday night for Indianapolis, Indiana, to spend until Saturday with his brother, Mr. and Mrs. Mr. and Mrs. James Murray. They went by Greyhound Bus from Hornell.

Shirley Herrick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harlie Herrick of Rexville and Jayne Krusen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Franklyn Krusen, Senior Students at Alfred Ag-Tech left with the Senior Girls Sunday for a tour of New York City until Friday. The group went by bus.

The Ag-Tech Easter Vacation is March 18-23. G.C.S. students include Shirley Herrick, Jayne Krusen, Larry Lewis, Steve Williamson, Gary Krusen.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Fox and family of the Rexville Road were hosts for Sunday dinner to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Morton of Woodhull and sisters, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Foster and family of South Canisteo and Mr. and Mrs. James DeMarte and family of Greenwood.

Mr. and Mrs. James McCaffery and sons, Robert and John of Rexville and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lewis and sons, Larry and William of Jackson Hill were Sunday dinner guests of their father Thomas Murray at West Greenwood.

Tony Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gary Clark, celebrated his second birthday Saturday, March 11, with a party at his home. Refreshments were served featuring a large birthday cake. Guests were: Mark and Rhonda Bettinger of Canisteo; Douglas and Lisa Tracy of Rexville; Bradley Clark, Donnie Cady, Gina Druetto, Denise Higgins, Kimberly, Melinda and Michael Moore and Timothy Clark. Also present were Mrs. Clair Tracy, Mrs. Donald Cady, Mrs. Charles Bettinger, Miss Valencia Greer, Mrs. Mildred Clark and Mrs. Floyd Cady.

Lynn Redmond, a student at Allegheny College at Meadville, Pa., arrived home Thursday for the Easter recess with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Redmond.

Cadet Roger Streeter, a student at the Coast Guard Academy at New London, Conn., is home this week for Easter with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Streeter. He visited several high schools the first of the week, to recruit for the Coast Guard Academy.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Chaffee and sons spent last week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ewell and family at Owego.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Muller and son of Fairport called on friends in town last Saturday.

Alton York and Mrs. Jennie

Downey are reporting for Jury Duty in Hornell since March 13. They have not been drawn as Jurors as many cases are settled out of court.

Mrs. Ruth York was a week-end guest of her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Clinton York.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Root of Caladonia were recent guests of Miss Sabrey Stephens.

Miss Anna Marie Murray returned home Friday from the St. James Mercy Hospital, Hornell, where she was a surgical patient for two weeks.

Stanley Holt and daughter Lauri Holt were surgical patients at the St. James Mercy Hospital Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Lamphier were Sunday dinner guests of her mother, Mrs. Claude Daggett and sister, Miss Charlotte Daggett at Delevan.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Hollenbeck of West Greenwood were hosts last Friday night for a rehearsal party for their son A2C Lloyd Douglas. Hollenbeck and Miss Carol Lynne Peckham, whose wedding was March 11 at the Seventh Day Baptist Church in Independence.

Greenwood Central School News

The following Greenwood Central School students have been accepted by the Alfred Agricultural and Technical College for the term beginning in September:

Carol Warriner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Warriner, Greenwood, will study Nursing.

John McCaffery, son of Mr. and Mrs. James McCaffery, Rexville, will study Measurement Science. Starlith Edwards, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Edwards, R. D., Andover, will study Medical Record Technology.

Jeanne Tolhurst, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Malin, Greenwood, R.D., will study Executive Secretarial Science.

James McCormick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert McCormick, Andover, R.D., Andover, will study Agricultural Business.

John McCormick, son of Mr. and Mrs. John McCormick, Rexville, R. D., plans to study Electrical Technology. John will enter the summer studies program in July.

Diann Weidner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Weidner, Greenwood, R.D., will study Executive Secretarial Science.

The following students have been accepted into programs offered at the College's Vocational Center in Wellsville:

Dale Grumley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Grumley, Rexville, will enter the Electrical Service Program.

Ben Losey, son of Lewis Losey,

Hornell, will enter the Automotive Specialist program.

The first class in the First Aid Course was organized at the Greenwood Central School Tuesday, March 14 with Mrs. Charity McCormick, instructor. There was such a large attendance that the class will be divided and will meet on Tuesday and Thursday at 7:30 until 9:30. This will continue for the next five weeks.

The following people signed for the course at the first meeting:

Eileen Merry, James Merry, Harold Porter, Stanley Murray, Erwin Allen, Ronald Putnam, James Shaut Mary Shaut, Fred Kirk Marvillene Kirk, Gail Smith, Irene Chaffee, Beverly Angello, Eloise Holt, Ellen Hanbach, Blanche Wallace, Mildred Clark, Louise Ahearn Nancy Coleman, Evelyn Hoagland Robert Hoagland, Jeanne Cornell.

Ann Stephens, Marjorie Lamphier, Donald Fisher, Jeanne Fisher, Joanne Holt, William O'Hagan, Jacqueline Murphy, Virginia Meehan, Clair Austin, James Austin, James Kernan, Edward Halsey Janet Halsey, Glenn Stephens Marilyn Austin, Doris Cheesman Virginia York, Clinton York, Doris Bennett, Kathryn Krusen, Stanley Holt, Clair Kernan, Eleanor Kernan.

Shirley Holt, Bryan Higgins Patricia Higgins, Christine Waters Harlan Waters, Gerald Mullen Anna Mullen, Barbara McCaffery Mary Mullen, Betty Moore, Linda Clark, Kay Fenti, Clair Rollins Orland Higgins, Merrill Hoag Irene Edwards, Donald Edwards Franklyn Krusen.

It takes 30 to 50 gallons of sap to make one gallon of maple syrup.

New York State ranks first in the nation in the production of pure maple products.

Eileen Brown

Announce Engagement

The engagement of Miss Eileen F. Brown, daughter of Mrs. Kenneth Stebbins, R.D. 2, and Mr. Fred Brown, is announced to PFC David S. Thorn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Thorp of 20 Chestnut Street, Andover.

The bride-elect is a Senior at Wellsville High School. Her fiancé, a graduate of Andover Central School, is presently serving with the Army in Fort Hood, Texas.

No definite wedding date has been set.

The shores of the Caspian Sea are believed to have been the birthplace of the apple.

The first peanuts raised for market in the United States were sold in Nashville, Tenn., in 1845.

The BIG ELMS Restaurant

Bring The Entire Family
For Your
Easter
Dinner

196 Seneca St. Hornell, N. Y.

JUST IN TIME FOR

EASTER

Complete Line Of Easter Accessories

Costume Jewelry

Handkerchiefs

Cosmetics

Handbags

Gloves

Nylon Hose

Scarfs

Rockwell's

WELLVILLE, N. Y.

Closed Every Wednesday Afternoon
Open Friday Nights Until 9:00 P. M.

EASTER LILIES

50c Bud or Bloom

and
Other Plants

GIFTS For All Occasions

SWACKHAMER'S Greenhouse and Gift Shop

N. Main Street

Hornell, N. Y.