Girl Scouts Hold Banquet

The Annual Mother and Daughter Banquet of Junior Girl Scout Troop 197 was held Wednesday, April 19th at the Presbyterian Church.

The program was opened with the singing of "America The Beautiful", followed by the saying of the Girl Scout Promise. Elaine Fronson, Susan Boyer and Susan Burgett accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Boyer, sang "My Favorite Things".

A finance report was given by Mrs. Clark. Our Troop Leader, Mrs. Barnes gave the following Leaders a token of appreciation for all their help in the past year. Mrs. Carl Clark, Mrs. Donald Mulconery, Mrs. Harry Weber, Mrs. James Gram. She thanked everyone for the different things they did to help make Scouting a success this year.

The guests for the evening were Miss Bonnie McDowell, Girl Scout Field Advisor and Mrs. John Huxie, Chairman of the Girl Scout Council Camp Committee. Mrs. Huxie showed slides and talked to us about Girl Scout Camping. She brought with her two camping cook-out kits to be used by both local Girl Scout Troops 197 & 218. These kits were made possible through the sales of Girl Scout Cookies this year, besides the profit that the local Troops made on the sale of cookies, too.

Prof. Theodore Randall, chairman of the art department of the college, will describe its art program in a talk to the teachers from Allegany, Steuben, Livingston and Genesee Counties.

"Learning While They Play"—a program aimed at understanding the value of play to small children will be presented on May 2, 1967 at 9:45 A. M. in the Local History Room at the David A.
