Francis O. Reesher Named Credit Card Sales Manager

Harold L. Bloss, President of the Citizens National Bank of Wellsville has announced the appointment of Francis O. Reesher to the position of Sales Manager of the recently announced Credit Card Plan which will be available to the merchants and card holders of this area as an affiliate of the Midland Charge Plan. By agreement the local bank and its branch offices will offer a general purpose credit card to provide merchants and their customers with a convenient charge account service. The general purpose Midland Charge Card is well known throughout New York State and in parts of Canada because of its acceptability and usefulness.

Mr. Reesher comes to the organization with 15 years of experience and training in the field of sales and finance. He has been assistant manager and manager of the Public Loan Company for twelve years. He is a native of Wellsville, a veteran of 4 years of service with the United States Army Air Force Military Police during the Korean War, a member of the Wellsville Exchange Club, American Legion and has been very active in youth activities in this area. Mr. Reesher is married to the former Ellen Anderson of Olean and resides with his family in Ceres, New York.

In commenting on the aspects of the credit plan Bank officials stated that Allegany County and its surrounding trading area has long awaited a convenient, practical and useful credit card plan which will benefit the consumers and merchants. We feel that the Midland Charge Card will increase the economic growth of our communities and provide the credit service which our people deserve. Full details of the new service will be announced within a few days.
