One hundred years ago on March 30, Secretary of State William H. Seward, and Senator, Charles Summer arranged for the purchase of $7,200,000 worth of iand from Russig. At that time this scarcely — populated, 2-cents an-acre, "ice box" was considered a waste of money by most Americans.

a waste of money by most Americans.

On June 30, 1948, Alaska became the forty-finth State of the Union; this was made official or January 3, 1959 by Presidential proclamation. Since it was first made a territory in 1912, Alaska, has been found to be very rich in natural resources. Alaska's the top state in the commercial catch of fish. It's value totaled $56,-910,000 in 1964. It's estimated total value in manufacturing fish another products was $89,311,000 in 1963. Alaska is also noted for its valuable timber resources, totaling over 44,000,000 acres of spruce, birch, hemlock, and red and yellow ce-lar. Other valuable resources are furs, oil $83,489,000 worth in 1965), minerals, natural gas and fine shipping harbors.

There are now two main high ways and twelve domestic action.

There are now two main high ways and twelve domestic airlines running to Alaska. It is becoming more modernized every year and has readily proved itself not to be a worthless "ice-box".

How America's red-white-and-blue collar workers help keep America strong.

In May 1941, top representatives of Amer ica's labor unions met with Henry Morgenthau, Jr., Secretary of the Treasury, and pledged their support of the Payroll Savings Plan for U.S. Savings Bonds.

Today, organized labor still endorses and actively supports the program. And the Payroll Savings Plan, just a experiment in 1941, now proudly boasts 8 million members, mostly union people, sharing a personal interest in their future and their country's.

With the Payroll Savings Plan, saving for the future is cownright easy-and painless. How can you don't a

When you sign up, a small part of your money is tucked away every payday. Automatically. And starts earning you the new, higher interest of 4.15% on every Bond you buy and hold to maturity.

Bonds grow quickly. So when yo need the money for important, personal things, the money is right there—ready to help pay for them.

Important things like a new home, education, that dream vacation-or your retirement.

Most important, Bonds are helping support our men in Vietnam.

Buy Bonds on the Payroll Savings Plan where you work and you'll find yourself in pretty good company.
