Local Area Hit by Heat Wave and Thunderstorms

Yep, it's happening here — now! We have jumped right out of the refrigerator — kersmack into the frying pan! 1st it's too cold — and then it's too hot. Just no in-betweens! From winter — to summer — in just a short week!

Here are the recorded temperatures since last Friday thru the courtesy of the "Boys down at the Pump Station": June 9th—L 58, H 85; 10th—L 56, H 84; 11th—L 54, H 86; 12—L 55, H 90; 13th—L 54, H 92; 14th—L 59, H 90; and today, the 15th—L 60, H 87 as we go to press. That's as hot or hotter than it's been in Florida lately—how about that?

We notice that we mentioned thunderstorms in the item above — and then didn't tell the results. Thus we shall take care of that little matter rite chere.

Tuesday evening we had a storm with an unofficial rainfall of 1-2/10 inches. However, the lightning that accompanied the storm was much more powerful.

Anyway—we can truthfully say that we found out that the Village Fathers were really in the dark — that evening, that is. Yep, the electricity went off about 8:20 and since it was regular Board meeting night, we stopped in to see where the trouble was — and how long it would be off. Well, I say now it was so dark in the Office there that they had quite a time of it looking up that there Enterprise number to call. We were told that there was a break in the line the other side of Wellsville — and it would be a little while before they could locate it—and then it would still have to be repaired.

Then, when the lights went back on again around here just before 10 p. m., we wondered how cum Andover's power wasn't restored until around 11:30. Well the mystery is now solved as we talked to Bob this afternoon and he told us that lightning must have made a direct hit on our local substation as it shattered a big porcelain insulator that's around a foot in diameter and that it had to be changed. Fortunately the electric department had one in stock — or it could possibly have been off a great deal longer.

Then last night, we had another real humdinger of an electric storm around supper time — and lights flicked off a few times, but they came right back on again.

However, 1 bolt of lightning really hit close — and you should have seen our kitten take off for tall timber! In fact, the little woman let out such a scream — that we thought at first that she was all charged up.

Today it was reported to us that one bolt of lightning hit a tree in the Atwell yard, and possibly some of the same charge scorched up Frank's TV set across the St. (on Water St.). Then too, we were told that Ken Vars had his electric wiring touched up a baten — and it burned out the electric clock in the Village Office.

You know what? That's coming just a little too close for comfort isn't it?

To go back to some unfinished business, now that the North Main St. bridge is completely resurfaced, we have noticed that there definitely is a marked improvement as far as visibility is concerned. Now, sitting in a car at the corner of Rochambeau Avenue and N. Main St., you can see the upper half of a car on the bridge—where before at times, you couldn't see any portion of a car there. Suppose that "half a loaf of bread" is better than none — but wouldn't it be nice to have "the whole loaf" since the Taxpayers are paying for it. Boy, some "diehards" really live up to that name don't they.

Oh Yes! We can't forget the Firemen's Demonstration that Larry almost knocked himself out last week in getting it arranged and the paper so folks would

Fourth Of July Celebration News

According to the Fourth of July Celebration Committee, things are beginning to shape up for another nice Celebration this year.

There will be a meeting on June 20th at 7:30 in the Andover Fire Hall of all Committees and interested people that want to take part and also for everyone that plans to enter a float in the Parade.

This year, as in previous years there will be Kiddie Rides available on the School Grounds and it is anticipated that Pony rides will also be arranged as before.

The winner of the Queen Contest will be announced in June 29th issue of the Andover News according to present plans.

Several float entries have already been received as well as those of marching units.

Time is getting shorter all the time so why not get your group together, figure out a design and theme for your float — and attend the meeting at the Fire Hall next Tuesday evening (June 20).

Further plans will be announced in next week's issue of the Andover News.

John Hames, a medical patient in the Jones Memorial Hospital, returned to his home Friday.

Harold Rifenburg, a medical patient in the Jones Memorial Hospital, returned to his home Tuesday.

Mrs. Ronald Monahan is a medical patient in the Bethesda Hospital, admitted last Thursday.

Dale Spencer was admitted Friday to the Jones Memorial Hospital as a medical patient.

Mrs. Kenneth Bostwick is a medical patient in the St. James Mercy Hospital.

Paul Westbrook was admitted to the Bethesda Hospital Monday as a medical patient.

Seems like there were a few snags encountered while fishing around in some shallow water and the music was off again, on again, and now may be off again — unless some outside talent comes in to town to help out.

Thus the Demonstration WILL BE HELD ANYWAY — FRIDAY NIGHT, JUNE 16th at 6:30 p. m.

It was also announced today that: THE FIRST 200 children under 9 years of age to show up at the DEMONSTRATION will receive Fire Marshal Badges and Hats.

How about that parents? Are you going to take little Johnny down and get his hat and badge — or are you going to have to put up with his disappointment — and maybe a tantrum or two (?) — by not going. Maybe little Mary would like one too — think so?

U-Turn nets "Kool Kat"

30 days in the "Kooler"! By the way, did you hear about the "Kool Kat" that got picked up for making a U-Turn on Main St. the other night.

It seems that a routine check revealed that he didn't have his driver's license with him — but he assured Ray that he would bring it along with him when he appeared at our local Justice Court.

Ennaway, he didn't show — so now he won't go — anywhere for 30 days that is.

Yep, Ray went over Belmont way where he lived — swore out a warrant — brought him back to our Justice Court where Harry fined him $5 on the U-Turn charge — and gave him 30 days in the Belmont "Kooler" for driving without a license!

Sometimes it is proven that — one little thing — can lead to another — with the dancer finally having to nav "the fiddler!"
