

Mrs. Robert E. Brandes

Connie Meyn Becomes Bride of Robert Brandes

Miss Connie Lee Meyn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Meyn of 26 Second St., Andover, N. Y., became the bride of Robert E. Brandes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Brandes of Wellsville, R. D. 2, N. Y., on Saturday, June 10th at Trinity Lutheran Church, Wellsville, N. Y.

The Rev. Elmer W. Arentz, pastor, performed the double ring ceremony at 7:30 p. m. in a candlelight service, before an altar decorated with candles and bouquets. Candelabras decorated the pews. Mr. Jack Burnham was organist and also played "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Lee Meyn, and wore a floor length gown of Alencon lace and seed pearl appliques over silk organza, fashioned with high empire Marie Antoinette waist accented with tiny bows, oval neckline, long tapered organza sleeves, A-line controlled skirt complemented with attached circular train, also trimmed with lace appliques and seed pearls. Her elbow length nylon tulle and pour fell from flowers and petals of Alencon lace and seed pearls. She carried flowers of small white roses and carnations with ivy and stephanotis.

Miss Marianne Meyn of Andover, N. Y., was maid-of-honor for her sister and wore a floor length gown of mint green nylon sheer over taffeta styled with scoop neckline, empire waist trimmed in tiny floral lace, long puffed sheer sleeves trimmed in matching lace and modified bell skirt accented at the back waistline with a self bow. She wore a matching floral headpiece of "Lilly of Valley" with tulle and puffed veil and matching satin slippers complimented her gown. She carried tiny white roses with small mint green carnations, ivy and stephanotis.

The bridesmaids were: Miss Anne Hanrahan, Belleville, New Jersey; Mrs. Richard Stetson, Bricktown New Jersey; Mrs. James Waters, Cheektowaga, N. Y.; and Miss Emily Alvord Andover, N. Y. They wore identical gowns and veils in rainbow colors, pastel pink, orchid, aqua and yellow, which matched the maid-of-honor's. They carried white roses with carnations the color of their gowns.

Misses Joan and Gayle Gailmann, nieces of the groom (daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Al Gailman of Wellsville), as flower girls, wore floor length gowns of nylon sheer over taffeta with mint green floral lace attached train accented at back waistline with self bow. The headpieces were white nylon tulle with tiny mint green floral lace. They carried white baskets and scattered rain-bow rose petals, which matched the bridesmaids' dresses.

Mater Jeffrey Brandes, nephew of the groom (and son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Brandes, Vestal, N. Y.) was ring bearer.

Joseph Brandes of Friendship, N. Y., was best man for his brother. Ushers were Richard Brandes, Vestal, N. Y., brother of the groom; David Alvord, Hugh Church, cousin of the bride, both of Andover and Lawrence Brown, Wellsville, N. Y.

The bride's mother wore a blue crepe dress with lattice bodice and white accessories and a corsage of white carnations and pink roses. The mother of the bride groom wore a coral crepe dress with white accessories and a corsage of white mums and pink roses.

A reception for approximately 125 guests was held at the Hotel Sherwood with dancing by Ray Hedges Orchestra. Mr. and Mrs. Brandes departed by plane for Florida and will travel through Florida.

The bride is a graduate of Andover Central School and Clara-Maass School of Nursing at Belleville, New Jersey. She is a Registered Nurse at Bethesda Hospital in Hornell, New York. Mr. Brandes was graduated from Wellsville Central School and attended Alfred Ag-Tech. He is self-employed.

Mr. and Mrs. Brandes will reside in Wellsville, N. Y. R.D. 2.

Prenuptial affairs included a Couples Shower given by her aunt, Mrs. Clyde Knox and cousins, Mrs. Wm. Weinheuer, and Mrs. Howard White of Wellsville and Mrs. Richard Lentz. "Around The Clock" shower by Miss Emily Alvord, Mrs. Francis Cable and Mrs. James Waters at the home of Mrs. Francis Cable, Andover, N. Y. A surprise shower by the nurses at Bethesda Hospital, Hornell, N. Y. A rehearsal dinner was given by the parents of the bridegroom at Six S Restaurant in Angelica, N. Y. and a luncheon by the bride's aunt, Miss Doris Church of Andover, N. Y.

Guests attended from Belleville, Neptune, Bricktown, Edgewater, New Jersey, Hornell and Silver Springs.

Swartz-Koehler

The marriage of Miss Elsie Ann Koehler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman A. Koehler, R.D. 2, Andover, and Sgt. Donald Fred Swartz of Ft. Knox, Kentucky was solemnized at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Irwin R. Swartz of 24½ East Center St. Andover, Saturday afternoon, June 10, 1967 at three o'clock.

The Rev. Floyd B. Aldrich, pastor of the Andover Baptist Church, performed the double-ring ceremony before sixty friends and relatives.

The bride given in marriage by her father, chose an Ecru colored two piece suit of crocheted french yarn, with a matching flower cluster headpiece and veil. Her bridal cascade bouquet was of sweetheart roses with white and yellow tinted carnations.

Mrs. Irwin R. Swartz, Jr., of Lewis Run, Pa., sister of the bridegroom was the matron-of-honor. She wore a mint green dress and carried a cascade style bouquet of white and yellow tinted carnations.

Cathy Lynn Swartz, sister of the bridegroom, was the flower girl.

Kenneth R. Koehler, Andover, R.D., brother of the bride, acted as best man.

A five o'clock buffet reception given by the bride's parents was held at the Cosle Inn in Almond for sixty guests.

The bride received her Bachelor of Science Degree in Music Education from the State University of New York at Fredonia, June 4th. She is a 1963 graduate of Greenwood Central School, Greenwood.

The groom, Sgt. Donald Swartz, whose home address is 24½ E. Center St., Andover, N. Y., graduated from Cameron High School, Cameron, West Virginia. Sgt. Swartz is now serving in the U. S. Army as a Supply Sgt. in the Armored Air Cavalry stationed at Ft. Knox, Kentucky.

The couple plan to reside in Andover after Sgt. Swartz completes his term of service on February 2, 1968.
