Benedict - Woodward

Miss Diane Woodward, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ward Woodward, became the bride of A2C Donald Benedict, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Benedict of Canisteo Saturday, July 8, 1967 in the First Methodist Church at Canisteo. The Rev. Norman Holder, Pastor, performed the double-ring ceremony before the altar decorated with bouquets of gladioli and yellow tipped carnations. Traditional wedding music was played by organist Mrs. Ellen Bush.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length sheath gown of crepe with oval neckline, long tapered sleeves, highlighted by a band of lace encircling the Empire waist and a detachable chapel train appliqued with lace. Her elbow length veil of illusion was fastened to an organdy floral headpiece sprinkled with pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses centered with a yellow tipped orchid.

Miss Alexis Brown of Greenwood, was maid-of-honor. She wore a floor length, sleeveless gown of lime green chiffon over taffeta. It was styled with Empire waist, an oval neckline from which fell a floor-length chiffon train. She wore matching floral headpiece with short veil and carried a cascade of green tipped carnations. Bridesmaids were the Misses Kay Millman of Bolivar; Carol Whiteman of Westfield and Susan Sloat of Bergen. Shelly Florence, niece of the bridegroom was flower girl. They all wore identically styled maize ensembles and carried cascades of yellow tipped carnations, and the flower girl a basket of yellow, white and green mums. John Florence was best man for his brother-in-law. Ushers were Larry Rogers of Troupsburg; Louis Pulkowsky, uncle of the bride, from Hornell; and Michael Connors of Arcade. Brian Florence, nephew of the bridegroom, was the ringbearer.

A reception followed the ceremony in the Church Parlor. The couple left for a wedding trip to Delaware. For travel the bride wore a yellow print dress and accessories and yellow orchid corsage.

The bride is a graduate of Greenwood Central School and College at Alfred. She was employed by St. James Mercy and Bethesda Hospitals as Laboratory Technician. Airman Benedict is a Graduate of Canisteo Central School and attended State University Agricultural and Technical College at Morrisville.
