

Mrs. Alfred Peter Sandy, Jr.

Miss Ruth D. Allen and Alfred P. Sandy Jr. Wed

Miss Ruth D. Allen and Alfred P. Sandy Jr. were united in marriage Saturday, September 9, 1967 at seven o'clock in the Andover First Baptist Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Riley Allen of 10 Eastview Ave., Andover, N. Y., and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Peter Sandy, Sr., of 393 Winchester Street, Rochester, N. Y.

Rev. Morris Wilson of Rochester, cousin of the groom, performed the double ring ceremony before the altar decorated with baskets of white gladiolus palms and gold candelabras with white candles.

Miss Dianne Vane, organist, rendered selection of traditional wedding music and accompanied Miss Inger Hogan of Watkins Glen who sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride selected a floor length A line gown of white heavy satin bonded lined with scooped neckline, trimmed at the bodice with heavy embroidery of lace leaves and flowers. The gown was covered with an over cape of white linen with large bell sleeves of the same lace held at the shoulders with two bows. Tiny bows held the train to the cape. Her headpiece was a small Victorian cap with three veils of English net, trimmed with tiny flowers of seed pearls and Alencon lace. White scalloped, short gloves completed the ensemble. She carried a large bouquet of white roses and buds with tiny green leaves. Her jewelry was earrings, a gift of the groom, made up of three tiny pearls and a one strand pearl necklace, belonging to the bride's maternal grandmother.

Miss Celia L. Grover of Andover, Maid of Honor, chose a floor length Empire gown of bright yellow daisy brocade, scooped neckline with tiny puffed sleeves. Her headpiece was a cluster of yellow daisies with two short veils of net in back. She carried a bouquet of yellow daisies and tiny green leaves with yellow velvet streamers.

Miss Linda Sandy, of Rochester, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid. She selected a gown of blue daisy brocade, identical to the Maid of Honor and wore a headpiece of daisy clusters with two tiny blue veils in back. She carried a bouquet of blue daisies, tiny green leaves with velvet bow and streamers of blue.

James Sandy of Albany, N. Y., brother of the groom, was best man. Peter VanWagon of Binghamton, N. Y., cousin of the groom, and Roger Auchbach of Maywood, New Jersey, served as ushers.

The bride's mother selected a blue knit suit with silver accessories. The mother of the groom wore a gold checkered dress with gold accessories. Both wore rosebud corsages.

A reception and luncheon was held for 150 guests immediately following the ceremony at Longvue in Wellsville. The bride's table was centered with a white five-tiered wedding cake with tiny pink flowers topped with a pillar, on which tiny white lace bells, fastened with white streamers. The bells were trimmed with tiny pink flowers.

Miss Diane Brown of Batavia, N. Y., and Mrs. Manley George of Andover, presided at the punch bowls. Miss Cheryl Baker of Genesee, had charge of the guest book.

For a wedding trip to Canada, Mrs. Sandy wore a two piece, baby blue wool suit with navy accessories and a light blue straw hat.

Upon their return Mr. and Mrs. Sandy Jr., will be at home at 18 1/2 Terrace Street, Alfred, New York.

Mrs. Sandy is a graduate of Andover Central School, Class of 1965; attended Alfred State Tech and is a 1967 graduate of Rochester Business Administration and Marketing. After September 19 she will be employed at the Alfred University Library.

Mr. Sandy is a graduate of John Marshall High School, Class of 1964, Rochester and is a senior at Alfred University, majoring in Chemistry. He is also a member of Delta Sigma Phi and the Blue Key, honor fraternity.

Prenuptial events included: A kitchen shower given by Mrs. William Smith of Wellsville; a variety shower given by Mrs. Wilbur Jardine, grandmother of the groom, and Miss Helen Jardine, aunt of the groom of Rochester; a variety shower by Mrs. Manley George, Miss Cheryl Baker and Miss Janet Woolworth; and a rehearsal party given by the parents of the bride at their home, assisted by Mrs. Walter Lang of Alfred.

Guests attended from Wellsville, Andover, Rochester, Alfred, Watkins Glen, Hilton, Ailentown, Penn Yan, Binghamton, Cornwall-on-the-Hudson and Romey, West Va and Maywood, New Jersey.

Appreciation

I wish to express my appreciation for the cards, flowers and other remembrances sent to me while I was a patient in the Bethesda Hospital.
