Red Cross To Sponsor "Voices From Home" Program

Mrs. Ralph Tompkins, Red Cross Chairman for Service to Military Families has announced that the Chapter would sponsor the "Voices From Home" program. This program enables families to send a 15 minute taped message to military personnel overseas. Persons making tapes will receive it as a gift in a mailing container. Listening facilities are available at most military bases.

Appointments for day or evening between November 6 and November 17 may be obtained by calling the Red Cross office—593-1531. Your voice is the very best gift you can offer your serviceman.

Some people just WON'T listen . . .

... to the advantages of a Citizens National Checking Account

They don't realize the time and money wasted traveling from place to place to pay bills is greater than the cost of a checking account at The Citizens National Bank. They don't know the assurance of having cancelled checks as receipts when they need proof of payments and at tax time. We hope YOU Do!
