

Christmas Program For Area Children Dec. 10th

A Christmas program primarily for area children is planned for Sunday afternoon December 10th, when a production of "Scrooge" will be presented in the gymnasium-theater at Alfred State College, Alfred.

"This is our first attempt at children's theater and the production is being presented through the combined efforts of the faculty and students", said John Larsen, director of drama at the college.

There will be no admission charge for the holiday offering which is scheduled for 2 p. m.

The half-hour performance is an adaptation by Dailey Paskman based on Charles Dickens "Christmas Carol."

Following the show, Santa Claus will be present to meet the children and give them presents. Christmas carols will also be sung as part of the program.

Mr. Larsen stresses that the program is open to all area children as well as any interested adults.

Since Santa Claus will greet the children at 2:45 p. m., Mr. Larsen suggests that parents who do not feel their children would be interested in the production arrange to arrive at the gymnasium at that time.

And who would have guessed that today it's worth money to you to quit cigarette smoking? Yes. Farmers and Traders Life Insurance Company has a new non-cigarette-smokers policy that quotes you a lower rate if you haven't smoked a cigarette during the past year.
