

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne M. Fossett

Miss Marcie Middaugh and Wayne Fossett Wed

The Andover Methodist Church was the setting Saturday, December 2, 1967 for the marriage of Miss Marcie Middaugh and Wayne M. Fossett which was solemnized at one o'clock in the afternoon.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Middaugh of Andover, N. Y. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Mary Fossett of Delaplane, Ark.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Dr. Alfred Gross of the University Methodist Church of Buffalo, N. Y., before the altar decorated with baskets of white chrysanthemums, white snapdragons and Christmas Greens. Traditional wedding music was rendered by Miss Suellen Swarthout of Friendship, N. Y., cousin of the bride.

The bride entered the sanctuary and was escorted to the altar by her father where she was given in marriage by her parents. She selected a traditional floor length bouffant lace gown over bridal satin and hoops. The gown featured a scalloped neckline edged with mother of pearl sequins, natural waistline and long sleeves ending in points over the hands. Her double panel Mantilla of white lace fell from a white satin pill box into a chapel train. She carried a Spanish hand bouquet of white roses and stephanitis with a shower of lace and satin ribbons entwined with stephanitis. A single strand of matching baby seed pearls belonging to her maternal great grandmother, completed the bride's ensemble.

Miss Linda Lee Middaugh of Oxon Hills, Md., was the honour attendant for her sister. She was attired in a feista pink creation of organza over matching lace with a scoop neckline. The dress featured a modified empire waistline with front and back bows and short lace sleeves. Her headpiece was a pill box of pink organza with matching bow and face veil. Pink gloves and shoes completed the outfit. She carried a crescent shaped hand bouquet of white fugii mums with evergreens and a Christmas green velvet ribbon.

The best man was Weldon Fossett of Hillside, Md., brother of the groom. Frederick Middaugh, brother of the bride and Daniel Grant, both of Andover, acted as ushers.

A reception catered by members of the Eastern Star with Mrs. Bessie Mulconey as chairman was held following the ceremony in the dining room of the Masonic Temple. The buffet table covered with white linen was centered with a four tiered wedding cake with miniature bride and groom on top, made by Mrs. Landis Kibbe of Andover, and was flanked by crystal candelabras with white tapers. The bride's aunt, Mrs. Mary Lou Brown of Coudersport, Pa., cut the cake for her niece with a silver and mother of pearl cake knife, belonging to her great grandmother. Miss Diana Thorp, Miss Martha Lynch and Miss Linda Davis were hostesses at the silver coffee services and punch bowl. The four hostesses wore carnation corsages, a gift of

Faircloth-Cook

Wedding vows were exchanged by Mrs. Mary Amelia Cook and Harry A. Faircloth at 12 noon Sunday, Nov. 20, 1967 in San Carlos Presbyterian Church in Florida. Rev. Claude Tucker officiated.

For her wedding, the bride chose an orchid and pink flower printed dress with a pink hat with a short veil and an orchid corsage.

Her attendant, Mrs. Stephen Mantanye, wore a sky blue dress, light blue accessories and a corsage of blue and white carnations. John Kiterman was best man.

Wedding bells and streamers decorated the San Park Recreation hall for the reception. The bride's table was covered with lace and centered with a tiered cake topped with bells and flowers.
