

Rod & Gun Club To Hold Annual Meeting Jan. 13

At the last monthly meeting of Andover Rod & Gun Club, the following were voted upon:

Saturday, January 6th, the Rod and Gun Club members will pick up any Christmas Trees that are left at the curb. The Club will use these trees for cover for small game.

Also if there are any landowners that wish small brush piles for conservation of small game, contact either Mike Smith of Jim Jackson.

Saturday, January 13, at 7 P. M., the Andover Rod & Gun Club will hold their Annual Dinner at the Andover Grange Hall. All Servicemen home on leave are invited to attend this Annual Dinner, free of charge. All members and their wives, should have their reservations in to Jim Jackson by Tuesday, January 9th.

Fred Slater, New York State Game Biologist, will show a film on Water Resources and Harry Madden, Game Warden, will be present.

C of C Hold Annual Christmas Dinner

The Andover Chamber of Commerce members and their families enjoyed the Annual C of C Christmas Dinner at the Grange Hall Wednesday evening. There were seventy present to enjoy the excellent dinner served by the ladies of the Grange. The tables and room were festive in the season's motif of Christmas.

During the evening program, four students rendered selections on their clarinets directed by Mrs. Nancy Potter, instructor of instrumental music in the Andover Central School. Mrs. Potter also directed group singing of Carols, assisted by Miss Cindy Preston at the piano.

Presentations of gifts for the children completed the program.
