Would You Believe

A HOME CAN COST $4,000,000?

Back in 1890 the Bitumores put up a $4,000,000 home in Asheville, North Carolina. At today's costs, think what you would pay for a similar house. On the other hand, why think about it? There just isn't that much money.

You may not be putting up a million-dollar home for your family but we'll bet you're thinking of their welfare all the time. And what better way than to set up a Farmers and Traders Life family insurance savings plan that offers in one policy for one premium, family protection and retirement benefits? This is the kind of "Personalized Insurance" that is Farmers and Traders trademark. Should this sound promising to you, let me give you details.
