

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Shuttleworth

Miss Diane Brown and Wm. Shuttleworth Wed

Miss Diane Lyn Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Brown of West Greenwood Street, became the bride of William Charles Shuttleworth of Belmont, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Shuttleworth at 12 o'clock Saturday, November 25, 1967 in the Andover Methodist Church.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Marcus Priest, from Chicago, Ill., uncle of the bridegroom, before the altar decorated in floral arrangements of blue, gold and white mums and pompoms.

Mrs. Ralph Burgett presided at the organ and accompanied the soloist Jeffery Olsen of Fort Wayne, Indiana.

Given in marriage by her parents Mr. and Mrs. Francis Brown, the bride selected a floor length white silk organza A-line gown styled with a scoop neckline, long sleeves and trimmed with Alcon lace. It featured a detachable, chapel length train with Alcon lace trim. Her shoulder length veil fell from a pillbox hat and she carried a bouquet of white mums and pompoms. She wore pearl earrings, a gift from the groom.

Miss Glenn L. Havens of River Forest, Illinois, cousin of the bride was the maid-of-honor. Her gown was floor length of gold chiffon over satin featuring long sleeves and a satin train. A matching pillbox hat held a short nose veil and her cascade bouquet was of peacock blue mums and pompoms.

The bridesmaids were Miss Roslyn Spallone of Buffalo, cousin of the bride, Miss Janet Woolworth of Elmira and Miss Susan Shuttleworth of Belmont, sister of the groom. Their floor length gowns were identical to the maid-of-honor in peacock blue and their bouquets were gold mums and pompoms.

The flower girls, Miss Cindy McAllister, cousin of the bride, wore peacock satin floor length gown with chiffon trim and a large matching satin bow was her headpiece. Johnny Fischer, nephew of the groom was the ring bearer.

John Shuttleworth of Middleport, acted as best man for his brother, Mike Lance of LeRoy; Gary Havens of Wellsville and Joseph Ciotoli of Endicott, were the ushers.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Brown wore a three piece heather rose suit with dark green accessories. The mother of the bridegroom chose a blue suit with black accessories, each wore a corsage of white mums.

Following the ceremony a reception for 150 guests was held at the Scio Rod and Gun Club. The club was decorated with white bells and streamers. The bride's table was centered with a five tiered wedding cake, with Miss Patricia Gath cutting and serving the cake. Mrs. Ruth Sandy and Miss Patricia Gath presided at the punch bowl and Mrs. Manley George had charge of the guest book.

Guests were present from: Hornell, Binghamton, Elmira, Canisteo, Olean, Endicott, Batavia, Buffalo, New Jersey, Fort Wayne, Indiana, River Forest and Chicago Illinois.

The bride is a member of the 1965 Class of the Andover Central School and graduated from the Broome Technical Community College in 1967 and is X-Ray Technician at Genesee Memorial Hospital at Batavia.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Belmont High School Class of 1965 and a junior at Genesee
