Would You Believe
A SNAIL'S PACE IS 23 IPH?

As you might guess, a snail is no Lotus-Ford for speed. At 23 inches an hour he finds the pace exhausting—about the speed of a small boy on his way to get a haircut.

There's nothing snail-like about the way a certain Farmers and Traders Life Insurance plan is selling, however. This is the Security-Plus-Savings plan that gives you life insurance protection at the same time that it provides money for emergencies and retirement benefits. Just let me know that you're interested in full details and I'll be available at greyhound (not snail) speed.
