

—Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Harwood of Utica and Miss Margaret Daley and Steve Bella of Rochester and Victor Daley and daughters, Carol and Karen of Buffalo, spent the Holiday week-end with their mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Daley.

—Mr. and Mrs. Richard Byndas returned to their home in Baldwin, L. I., Saturday after spending the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard M. Baker.

—Dr. and Mrs. John K. Fisher and son of Edinboro, Pa., visited Mrs. Anna Fisher also Dean Fisher and family of Wellsville during the Holidays.

—George Hoover returned to Clarkson College of Technology at Potsdam, Tuesday, after spending the Christmas Holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Hoover.

—Leo Horan was in Wellsville and Belmont, Wednesday.

—Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Spicer left Wednesday for Buffalo where they plan to leave by plane from the Buffalo Airport Thursday for Largo, Fla., to spend the remainder of the winter with their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Vincent.

—Mrs. Earl Bassett of Lockport returned home Wednesday after spending the Holidays guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Snyder.

—Mrs. Claire C. Backus returned to her home Tuesday after spending the Christmas Holidays at the home of her son, Mr. and Mrs. James H. Backus and family of Alexandria, Va.

—Mr. and Mrs. Ralph A. Alien spent the New Years week-end at the home of his sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. George Ryon of Cobleskill, N. Y.

The Home Economics Division of Cooperative Extension will sponsor a leader training program on "Be A Better Shopper," on January 9th from 10:00 - 3:00 at the David Howe Library in Wellsville. This program will include information designed to help the homemaker improve shopping skills and stretch their supermarket let dollars. Mary Lou Luckey, home economics agent with Cooperative Extension in Allegany County will present this program to locally enrolled representatives from organizations throughout the area. Any additional interested groups are urged to contact the Belmont office (phone 716-268-7644) for further information or to pre-register.

Andover firemen were called out twice Tuesday afternoon to a chimney fire at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Alan Folsom of Center Street. Chief Fox reported only minor smoke damage although there was a great deal of soot and dirt from the chimney throughout the house.

The possibility of a woodworking plant in Allegany County that would provide a market for grade timber was again discussed at a meeting last Thursday morning tri-county advisory committee of the Allegany members of the resource conservation and development program.

The First Congregational Church Building, North Main St., a landmark in the village of Wellsville since 1872, has been closed to all occupancy. The board of trustees made the decision, which became effective Saturday, Dec. 30. Lee Dodge, chairman of the board, stated that a recent inspection by a consulting engineering firm revealed significant structural defects in the roof framework, which in the opinion of the board, necessitated closing of the old church building. Last Sunday's services were held in the David A. Howe Library auditorium. Construction of a new church edifice will begin in the spring at a new site, the Norton property on North Main Street.

The Very Rev. Norman J. O'Meara, pastor of Immaculate Conception Church of Wellsville, and Dean of Allegany County, since September 1961, will be elevated to the ecclesiastical rank of domestic prelate in a solemn investiture in Buffalo next month. Following the consecrated Mass at 7 p. m., Jan. 25 in St. Isaac's New Cathedral he will be the Rt.

Rev. Msgr. Norman J. O'Meara. He will continue to serve as Dean of the county.

Rev. and Mrs. Gerald Wolter and family of Houghton moved into the Andover Methodist Parsonage last Wednesday. Rev. Wolter is pastor of the Andover and Greenwood Methodist Churches.

Mrs. Ardelle Hubbell secretary -Treasurer of Brown and Stout Insurance Agency, Inc., of Wellsville retired the first of the year. She was feted at a dinner party recently at the Fassett Hotel, attended by 20 friends and representatives of insurance firms, including several from Buffalo. Mrs. Hubbell plans to spend the remainder of the winter at St. Petersburg, Fla.

Victor Grove Sr., of Fords Brook Road was elected president of Allegany County Rodia Emergency Service Inc. at the annual dinner meeting held in the Community Building recently. Reports of the year's activities included 75 trips to and from Hornell transporting blood totaling 212 units.

The Belmont School District has approved by a vote of 94 to 20, the purchase of the Fred Graham property on the Angelica Road, Belmont, for the site of the new permanent Allegany County Occupational Center. The cost of the Occupational Center will be borne by the Federal Government, division of educational finances, and the 13 of the 15 schools in Allegany County which participate in the Board of Cooperative Services, which operates the Occupational Center

Either baked or boiled potatoes provide generous amounts of vitamin C as well as iron and vitamin B.

Citizens of Tomorrow

Ricky 10, and Wendy 8, children of Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Cahill.

Deborah Ann 6, Joseph Patrick 5, Christine 4, and Douglas 1, children of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Howland.

George 7, Guy 5, and Monte 3, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Milligan.

Sharon 3½, and Helena 17 mo., children of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Davis.

Wanda Kay 3 and Tammy Sue 19 mos., children of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Ordiway.

Gary Richard 3, and Christopher Lee 1, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Gary L. Hoagland.

Donald 8, Darren 5, LeDorna 3, and Valerie 1½, children of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Monahan.

Francis Michael 3, and Michael John 1½, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Leo D. Joyce.

NOTICE!

New Barber Shop Hours!

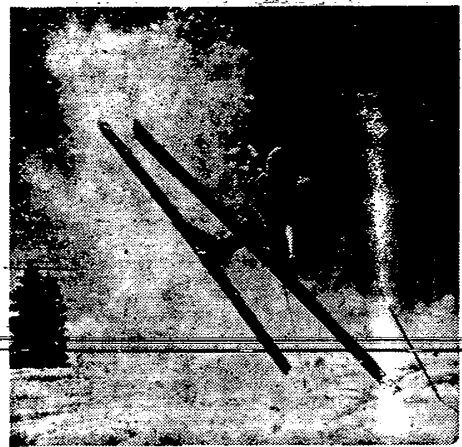

Daily — 1 P. M. to 7 P. M.

Appointments Taken — Call 478-3135

Walk-in business accommodated when possible

FAY BROWN

Pictures à Go-Go
...with your camera

The difference between sight-seeing and sight-saving is a camera. Many travelers come home without pictures. Why? Because they didn't want to "lug" a camera along. Now KODAK INSTAMATIC Cameras have changed all that. These cameras are compact, lightweight, easy to load, easy to carry. If you like to travel light—whether it's in the back yard or across the ocean—and still take pictures, come on in and see for yourself our selection of KODAK-INSTAMATIC Cameras. These cameras fit—perfectly—into a traveler's world!

VARS PHARMACY

Andover, New York

Dial: 478-5601

ROCKWELL'S PRE-INVENTORY SALE

STARTS

Thursday, Jan. 4th

We Are Offering Hundreds of Unusual Bargains In Every Department

Rockwell's
WELLSVILLE, N. Y.