

Mrs. Rand Steven Beckman

Miss Lewis Wed on Birthday

Miss Connie Lorraine Lewis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis L. Gavin of Elm Valley and the late Charles F. Lewis, became the bride of Rand Steven Beckman, son of Reynold E. Beckman of Elmira and Mrs. Basil Inferrera of Wellsville, at 11:00 o'clock on Saturday, January 27, 1968 in the Immaculate Conception Church, Wellsville, N. Y.

The double-ring ceremony, performed by Father Norman J. O'Meara, took place on the bride's eighteenth birthday anniversary. Pink and white floral arrangements decorated the altar.

Miss Rita Dixon of Andover, sang an arrangement of "Ave Maria", accompanied on the organ by Mrs. Mary Daley of Wellsville.

Given in marriage by her stepfather, Francis Gavin, the bride wore a floor-length, A-line gown of white satin, with a scalloped neckline. The pin-point lace empire bodice was trimmed with a small bow and ring of seed pearls. Lace formed the long, tapered sleeves. The dress featured a detachable, chapel-length train of white satin with lace trim. The bride's finger-tip-length veil of silk illusion fell from a crown of seed pearls and she carried a bouquet of red and white roses.

Miss Sharon Lewis was maid-of-honor for her sister. She wore a full length, sleeveless gown of burgundy velvet. The empire bodice was trimmed with a single row of light pink daisies and a matching shoulder length veil of pink velvet daisies and pink net, light pink formal-length gloves and pink shoes completed the ensemble. She carried a cascade bouquet of pink, red and white roses.

Miss Darcy Beckman, sister of the groom, Miss Nancy Lewis, cousin of the bride, both of Wellsville and Miss Cheryl Steadman of Andover, cousin of the bride, were the bridesmaids. Their floor-length, short-sleeved gowns had burgundy velvet empire bodices, trimmed with burgundy satin bows and light pink crepe skirts. Their veils and shoes were the same as Miss Sharon Lewis. They each carried a cascade bouquet of pink, red and white roses.

Miss Linda Mutconery of Andover was the Junior Bridesmaid. Her dress was patterned after the bridesmaids and featured a light pink satin bow. She carried an arrangement of pink, red and white roses.

The flower girl was Miss Marlene Gavin, cousin of the bride. She wore a floor-length bell-shaped dress of light pink satin covered with white pin-point lace and accented by a pale pink rosebud at the waist-back. Her headpiece was the same as the bridesmaids. She carried a bouquet of red roses.

Mr. Beckman's best man was George Hubert of Wellsville, N. Y. Roger Martin and Michael Art of Wellsville and James Lord of Elmira acted as ushers. Joseph Inferrera, brother of the groom, was Junior Usher and Francis Joyce of Andover, acted as the ring-bearer.

For her daughters' wedding, Mrs. Gavin chose a street-length dress of burgundy velvet with a V-neckline and long sleeves trimmed with lace. To complement the outfit, she chose white satin accessories and a corsage of pink sweetheart roses. The mother of the groom chose a modified A-line dress of bronze slipper silk, accented by a matching fur-lined cape. She wore matching bronze accessories and a corsage of bronze mums.

A reception for 170 guests was held from 1 - 4 o'clock in the Gold Room at the Hotel Fassett in Wellsville. Music for dancing was provided by Max Baker's Orchestra. The bridal table was centered with a four-tiered wedding cake, made by Mrs. Landis Kibbe of Andover and a smaller birthday cake for the bride. Miss Cecelia Peroski of Elmira and Miss Ella Lewis of Wellsville served as hostesses. Pictures were taken by Schwab of Wellsville.

The bride is a 1967 graduate of Andover Central School and is now a student at Alfred-Tech in Data Processing. The bridegroom is a 1966 graduate of Wellsville High School and a senior at Alfred Ag-Tech in Automobile Mechanics.

Pre-nuptial events included variety showers given by Mr. and Mrs. Reynold E. Beckman of Elmira; Mrs. John Coats of Andover; Mrs. Everett Clarke of Elm Valley and Mrs. John Boyd of Wellsville. A couples stamp-book shower was given by Mr. and Mrs. John Gavin. Mr. and Mrs. Leo Joyce-Jr. and Miss Sharon Lewis, all of Andover. A linen shower was given by Mrs. Ronita Wilson and Mrs. Louise Caschera of Wellsville.

A rehearsal party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Basil Inferrera on the eve of the wedding for members of the wedding party.

For her wedding trip, the bride chose a one-piece, A-line dress of beige and brown knit and dark brown accessories. She wore a corsage of cymbidium orchids. The couple will reside at 109 Madison St., Wellsville, N. Y.

Appreciation

I wish to thank my many friends for their kindnesses and cards of good wishes which have helped so much towards my recovery.
