

Armed with bow and arrow, adventurer-cameraman Wally Taber canoed 400 miles of the Ruvu River in Africa to document "River Safari" slated into Wellsville Central School Auditorium Fri. Mar. 22 at 8 P. M., by Allegany Federation of Sportsmen. Rounding out an evening of color-adventure film, popular film raconteur Taber will also narrate "Caribou Country" shot along and beyond the famed Alaskan Hiway. The program is whole-family adventure—popularly priced for family attendance.
