Would You Believe
 A LETTER
 3,200 FEET
 LONG?

War-time does strange things to people. Take the case of the love-lorn miss from Brooklyn who, in the Korean war, wrote a 3,200 foot letter to her soldier-sweetheart. Her letter was written on an adding machine roll. How romantic can you get?

If Farmers and Traders Life Insurance Company thought you would read it, we'd write you an even longer letter about our Family Life Insurance policy. This "personalized insurance" plan gives protection to father, mother and the children in one policy and for one low premium. It can be adjusted beautifully to your individual circumstances like all "P.L." policies. Just nod in my direction and I'll give you full details about this popular plan.
