A gardening and maintenance course for home-owners is being offered at State University Agricultural and Technical College at Alfred under its Continuing Education program. Reed Lowrey, director of continuing education, said the course will begin Tuesday, April 2, and continue for eight weekly sessions. The sessions will be from 7:30 to 9:30 p. m. Tuesdays at the Anderson Horticulture Laboratory on Route 244 in Alfred. Additional information concerning the course is available by contacting the Office for Continuing Education in person or by phone or letter. Registration is now in progress.

Fire of undetermined origin damaged a storeroom at Weston's Shopping City, Westons Mills, Friday afternoon, bringing five volunteer fire companies to the aid of the local department. The fire did extensive damage to material stored in the warehouse of the one-story masonry building, and destroyed about three quarters of the roof of the storage area. One corner of the building was reported to have collapsed after the fire had been extinguished.

Four authorities on the illegal use of drugs and the reasons why people turn to them will discuss the problem during a symposium at Alfred University on May 6 in Rogers Campus Center at 7 P. M. Dean of Students Paul Powers said the symposium has been scheduled as an expansion of the continuing education program dealing with narcotics which has brought movies and speakers to the campus.

Erie Lackawanna Railroad became a part of the 8,000-mile 14-state Norfolk and Western Railroad System last week. An E-L spokesman in Cleveland previously announced that the change will not be visible to the public except in an increase in freight traffic on the E-L's lines. The company's insignia on rolling stock won't be changed and no immediate alterations of the company's slim passenger schedule are planned.

Donald Waddell, a 15-year-old schoolboy from Romulus, landed his first trout ever Monday, and the fish made him $100 richer. The youth's 13-pound, 1-ounce rainbow, taken with an artificial fly from Naples Creek near Naples won him the cash and the Wehle Memorial Trophy as the largest entry in the Naples Fish Derby, held on the opening day of New York State trout season. Second largest among the 172 fish entered was an 8-pound 14-ounce rainbow caught by Tom Hargrave of Rochester who received $75. The $50 third prize went to Joe Riefer of Webster, for his 8-pound, 9-ounce rainbow.

Feted At Bridal Shower

The home of Mrs. Jane Sisson was the scene of happy activity Saturday evening, March 30th. Mrs. Sisson and her daughter, Mrs. Monty Peters of Annandale, Virginia, entertained at a bridal shower in honor of Miss Vicki Lynch.

Several unusual games were played by the nearly twenty-five guests present. After which, Vicki opened her many lovely gifts.

Refreshments were served buffet style by the hostesses. The table was centered by a special shower cake in honor of the bride-to-be.

Guests included friends and relatives of the bride from Andover and Wellsville. Vicki's college roommate, Miss Bonnie Donnan and her mother, Mrs. Douglas Donnan of Bergen, New York, were also present.

Miss Lynch plans to be married on April 27th.

Carillonneur To Present Concert In Memory of Dr. Ray Wingate

James R. Lawson, carillonneur at The Riverside Church in New York City, will play a concert on the Davis Memorial Carillon, Sunday, April 28, in memory of the late Dr. Ray Wingate who was carillonneur at Alfred University for 30 years before his death last month.

The memorial concert will be presented at 4 p. m. on the Sunday which has been designated as International Carillon Day. The Laura Spelman Rockefeller Carillon of the River Church contains 74 bells including the 20-ton Bourdon, which is the largest and heaviest tuned bell in the world.

Dr. Wingate was a guest carillonneur at the Riverside Church a number of times. During his career, he had played nearly 80 of the slightly more than 100 carillons in the western hemisphere. He had also played instruments in Belgium, Holland and France.

Alfred University originally appointed Dr. Wingate to the faculty in 1912 as a professor of voice and organ. He became carillonneur when the Davis Memorial Carillon was erected on the campus in 1937.
