Would You Believe
 $15.00
 a
A $30,000 CHECK FOR 2,000 WORDS?

At $15 a word, this was the record amount paid Ernest Hemingway by Sports Illustrated. Using the same basis, Hemingway would have been paid $1,625 for writing this ad. Beats shucking oysters for a living.

Money was no problem to Hemingway but most of us are deeply concerned about our financial future. That's why the Estate Builder Plan of Farmers and Traders Life Insurance Company has gone over so big. Under this personalized insurance plan, you get maximum family protection on a permanent insurance basis while the policy acts as a "savings account" for you. There are many other features to the Estate Builder Plan which I'd like to explain to you. Just say when.
