Nearly 200 bus drivers from Allegany and Steuben County schools received certificates this week for successful completion of an instructional course offered under the auspices of the Division of Continuing Education at Alfred Tech. The awards were presented during a banquet which attracted about 280 persons to the college. The program included a talk by Dr. Howard Welker, principal of Ten Broeck Academy and Franklinville Central School. The 20-hour basic training course was offered at the request of N. Francis Miller, district superintendent of schools in Steuben County, and Andrew F. Haynes, district superintendent of Allegany County schools. Awarded certificates from Andover were: Hugh Barlow, Francis Gavin, Norma Gavin, Gary Hoagland, Art Kemp, Kenneth Vars and Clarence Weatherby.

Allegany County 4-H'ers have planted several hundred trees on idle farm lands as part of the 4-H project to conserve soil and water and eventually produce lumber. The county 4-H'ers are among the 223 girls and boys who have enrolled in this year's project will also compete for the Buffalo Evening News medals awarded to those whose plantations are judged best at the end of this year's growing season.

The annual dinner meeting of the Allegany County Public Welfare Committee was held Monday, May 13 at the Long Vue Restaurant with thirty people attending. Officers elected for the coming year were: R. J. Sotheran, President; Mrs. J. R. Cronin of Bolivar, Vice-President; Mrs. Merrill Rice of Alfred, Secretary; and M. E. Kenyon of Ifred, Treasurer.

A fire was reported shortly after four Friday morning in the old ice-making and storage area of the three-story half of the Erie-Lackawanna ice house in Hornell and gutted the five-story eastern-portion of the plant which was being demolished by Gardner Construction Co. of Canisteo. That portion of the plant had not been used since September, 1966, and contained nothing of value. The ice house buildings are believed to have been built by the former Hornell Ice and Cold Storage Co. about 1912 and ice from the Andover Ponds was stored in these buildings before our present refrigeration and the ice was delivery in this area for iceboxes.

Allegany County American Legionnaires and Auxiliary members attended a joint Memorial Service at the county meeting Thursday night at Robert E. James Post 1012 at Whitesville. The service was conducted for 64 veterans and five auxiliary members by county commander Leonard Neetz and county chaplain Homer Cruser, both of Canaseraga and county auxiliary president, Mrs. Marium K Haskins of Belfast and auxiliary chaplain Mrs. Arlounie McCarthy of Cuba.

PTA News

Mrs. Marsha Tell was honored by the Andover Parent-Teacher Association as "teacher of the year" at the annual Teacher Recognition Day tea and program at the school last Thursday.

Mrs. Tell has taught fifth grade for two years while her husband, David, has been a graduate student at the State University College of Ceramics at Alfred. She will be leaving the school system at the end of the year. Principal James Kessler read a letter of citation and Mrs. Tell was presented with a bouquet of purple and yellow mums.

Also honored was James Nobles who has served as school custodian since 1940. He was presented with an honorary life membership in the PTA for his service to students and youth in the community over the years.

At the beginning of the school day each teacher was given a corsage or boutonniere by a PTA committee.

Valley Brook Cemetery Association Holds Annual Meeting

The Annual Meeting of the Valley Brook Cemetery Association was held Tuesday evening, May 14th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Huffcut at 8 p. m.

The following were elected as directors for the year 1968:

Harold Huffcut, President
Grace Burger, Treasurer
Clyde Yorton, Supt.
E. N. Clair, Secretary

Howard Burdick and Clare Jackson, Directors at Large

Plans were made to further improve the Cemetery and to start work on the new section. It was voted to amend the By-Laws to read as follows: "All potted plants or artificial flowers or decorations shall be removed from graves two weeks after Decoration Day". This ruling does not apply to Urns. This By-Law was adopted to facilitate the care of the grounds. Oliver Fredland was again appointed as caretaker. It was reported that six bodies had been stored in the Charles Robinson Memorial Mausoleum during the winter.
