

GREENWOOD NEWS

Grace Young, Reporter

Miss Barbara Lamphier became the bride of Raymond-Duke, Jr., at Noon Saturday, June 29 at St. Joachim's Church in Canisteo. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lamphier of the Canisteo Road and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond J. Duke, Sr., of DeRuyter. The Rev. Vincent B. Collins performed the double ring ceremony before an altar banked with vases of gladioli. Miss Ingrid Zeldin of Jamestown was soloist and Mrs. Clair Rollins, Canisteo, R.D., was organist.

Mrs. Robert Streeter of Springfield, Ill., was Matron-of-Honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Achim Lind of Jamestown, Miss Doris Jones of Arkport and Miss Sally Hardenburg of Washington, D. C. Shelly Lamphier was junior bridesmaid and her sisters, Carla and Lori Lamphier, nieces of the bride were flower girls. Jay Bangs of Canisteo R.D., was Best Man. Sheldon Atherton, Canisteo R.D., and George Tubbs of Elkland, Pa. and James DeMarte of Rochester were ushers.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of peau de soie and reembroidered Alencon lace styled with a molded empire bodice accented with a tiny bow and appliqued with Alencon lace forming the scalloped portrait neckline and short sleeves. Lace circled the slim floor length skirt and a court train was fastened to the shoulders with a bow of reembroidered lace that swept to Chapel length. The bouffant veil of English silk illusion was caught to a crown of seed pearls and Alencon lace medallions. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and stephanotis.

The attendants wore gowns of crystal aqua saki material fashioned with empire bodice accented with small bows, square neckline, brief sleeves and slim floor length skirts. Their bouffant veils were attached to bows and they carried hand bouquets of pink carnations. The flower girls were dressed of aqua saki material with floor length skirts, empire bodices with Alencon lace and carried nosegays of pink carnations.

A wedding buffet for 225 guests was held at the Hotel Sherwood in Hornell. Mrs. Dale Lamphier, sister-in-law of the bride, cut the cake made by Mrs. Kibbe of Andover.

For a wedding trip the bride wore a marina green crepe sheath dress with white accessories.

Mrs. Duke is a graduate of Greenwood Central School and the State University College at Fredonia. She was vocal music teacher at Jamestown and last year at Lakewood Elementary School. She will teach elementary vocal music at Greenwood Central this fall. Mr. Duke is a graduate of Le Moyne College at Syracuse and teaches mathematics at Greenwood Central School.

Mrs. Pearl Bassett and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mitchell and family of the Canisteo Road attended the wedding of their grandson and nephew Duane Burley and Miss Elaine Wing at the Burns Community Church Saturday, June 29. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Burley of Stephens Mills. He is serving with the U. S. Navy stationed at the U. S. Naval Hospital in Beaufort, S. C., where they will live.

Mrs. Bassett and the Mitchell family also attended the wedding of their granddaughter and niece, Arlene Burley to Rodney Alexander Wednesday, July 3 at the home of the bridegroom in Stephens Mills. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Burley.

Miss Cynthia Dowd of Angelica and A1/C Stanley Smith were married Monday, June 24 in the Chapel at the Misawa Air Force Base in Japan. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Dowd, Jr., of Angelica and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Smith of Rexville. The double-ring ceremony was performed by Major Carl C. Reiter, Chaplain of the base, before an altar decorated with vases of carnations. Miss Barbara Gallman of Angelica, was maid-of-honor wearing a pastel-yellow, sleeveless A-line gown and matching net headpiece. A1/C David Stokes of Auburn, Calif., was best man.

The bride wore a floor length gown of bridal satin with scoop neckline, short sleeves edged with floral lace appliques, an empress waistline banded in matching lace and sheath skirt. The tubular train lined with satin was accented with lace floral appliques. Her elbow length veil of illusion net was held with a cluster of organza petals edged with pearls and centered with crystals.

A reception at the base club followed the ceremony. The bride is a graduate of Angelica Central School and the International Data Processing Institute of Rochester. The bridegroom is a graduate of Greenwood Central School and State University Agricultural and Technical College at Alfred. He is stationed at the Misawa Air Force Base and the couple will live near there in a home built by the bridegroom during his tour of duty in Japan.

Sunday evening there was a collision in front of Druetto's Store on the Rexville Road. Floyd Cady, turned in front of a northbound car driven by Mr. Hurlbert of Hornell. Both cars were badly damaged on the right front. There were no personal injuries. Flares were put out and an Addison Trooper was notified. Cady and Ed Halsey directed traffic until after the Trooper came so the cars could be removed.

The Vacation Bible School closing program was held at the United Methodist Church June 30. Each class contributed from the lessons during the week on the theme "God's Word, Today's Hope". The Pledge of Allegiance to the Bible was led by Debbie Cook. The Rev. Gerald Wolter gave brief remarks and brought costumes of the Bible Lands which were modeled by Diane Smith and Charles Feenaughty. Usherettes were Susan Dennison, Melody Stephens, Cindy Wallace and Beth Wolter. There were 70 children registered with 43 having perfect attendance for the six days. Mrs. Geraldine Lamphier, Director, was assisted by Starla Jackson as pianist and teachers, Marlene Glover, Diane Smith, Lillian Meeks, Joan Spencer, Eleanor Lamphier, Ann Stephens, Joan Edington and Virginia York. The helpers were Lee Ann Feenaughty, Jolene Halsey, Karen Smith, Grace Young, Charles Feenaughty, Brenda Cady, Pam Holt, Barbara Kirk, Randy Heckman, Betty York and Judy York. The Church School is closed for the Summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bianco are the parents of a son born Friday, June 28 at the Bethesda Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Clair Kernan are the maternal grandparents. His name is Michael Anthony.

Donald W. Benedict, husband of Diane Woodward, has been promoted to Sergeant in the Air Force. He is attached to the 883rd Tactical Fighter Wing at the Korat Royal Thai Air Force Base in Korat, Thailand.

Specialist 4 Ben Smith was transferred last week from Fort Belvoir, Va., to Cleveland, Ohio. He is the son of Mrs. Louise Smith.

John Weidner, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Weidner, Sr., of West Greenwood returned home July 5 from Strong Memorial Hospital in Rochester. He had corrective surgery on his legs and was a patient for two weeks. He will be in the cast for a month longer at home and use a wheel chair.

Mrs. Louise Ahearn and Mrs. Sharon Harkenrider are leaders for 14 girls 7 - 8 years old in Brownies registered as Troop No. 168. They met during the last weeks of school from 3:30 to 4:30 P. M. Tuesdays at school. There are no meetings in the summer. At Day Camp, at Camp Gremer last week, 11 girls attended. Monday Mrs. Ahearn and Mrs. Blanche Campbell went, Tuesday Mrs. Harkenrider and Mrs. Betty Moore and Wednesday Mrs. Ahearn and Mrs. Harkenrider were leaders.

Miss Joan Spencer went with Mrs. Mullen and Mrs. Glover to help the Scouts.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Mullen and five children of West Greenwood started on a two months trip to California Friday, June 28th.

Mr. and Mrs. James Hinks recently bought the Stewart Muciller property on Christian Hollow. The family moved from the Stanley Hale house on Church Hill the last week of June.

Mr. and Mrs. Wyman Krusen have moved into their Trailer Home on the edge of their former property. Mr. and Mrs. Fay Hovey and family moved from their farm on Fisher Hollow to the Krusen Garage they bought this Spring and have opened for business.

Mr. and Mrs. David Thompson have bought the property on Fisher Hollow from Fay Hovey and plan to sell their Trailer home on the Jasper Road and move by the first of August.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Greene and family moved last Wednesday to the Wellsville Trailer Court. Thomas Murray of West Greenwood bought the Greene property and has rented it to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bianco and family who moved there the last of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Underwood recently moved to the tenant house on the Douglas York farm at West Greenwood. He is the new English Teacher at Greenwood Central.

Mr. and Mrs. Duane Siebert recently bought the farm owned by Mrs. Helen Rogers on West Greenwood. They will move soon from their Trailer home located on Alta York property on the Andover Road. Mrs. Winona Myers of Rochester has spent two weeks with her daughter and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Streeter and family left Tuesday for their home at Springfield, Ill., after a two weeks vacation at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Streeter.

The Birmingham-Burd American Legion Auxiliary ended the season with a dinner party at the Arkport Inn Friday, June 28th with 7 in attendance. The Greenwood and Canisteo Auxiliary Units plan a July picnic for the Sportsmen Club at the V A Center in Bath.

Greenwood Central School Bus is taking 16 Junior and Senior High School students to summer school in Wellsville starting July 1 with three days the first week. Elementary students began summer school at G.C.S. July 8.

Miss Eleanor Acker spoke at the Young Hickory Baptist Church Sunday morning, July 7 and at Clarksville Sunday evening. She attended the Southside Baptist Church in Hornell Sunday morning, June 30 and spoke to the youth group in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Stephens were week-end guests of their daughter, Miss Roberta Stephens at Wayland.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Fisher and family were on a camping vacation in the Pittsburgh area last week.

Mrs. Edith Travis of Canisteo and Rev. and Mrs. David Knickerbocker and sons of Round Lake were Fourth of July guests of Francis Acker and daughter Eleanor. Tim and Tom Knickerbocker spent Tuesday to Thursday with their aunt and grandfather.

Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Heckman, David, Tim and Pam camped at Letchworth State Park Saturday to Thursday. Steve and Randy Heckman stayed with their aunt, Mrs. Everett Osmin.

Ensign Roger Streeter reported to Staten Island last Wednesday after a month's leave with his family. Mr. and Mrs. Marion Streeter.

Mr. and Mrs. Rush Huyler of Woodhull called on William McDonough Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Gifford of Buffalo were Wednesday night guests of Miss Sabrey Stephens. They were on their way to Chatham, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Fisher and family entertained at their Camp at Hartsville June 30: Mrs. Lewis Cornell, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Holt and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Streeter, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Streeter and family, Ensign Roger Streeter and Mr. and Mrs. Clair Cornell and family.

Francis Acker and daughter Eleanor were hosts for a family picnic June 30: Mr. and Mrs.

The Greenwood Fire Department "strut their stuff" and capture 2nd Prize in the Andover 4th of July Parade.

News Photo

Lloyd Allen of Hartsville, Mrs. M. P. Wheeler, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Acker and family of Wellsville, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Acker and son of Hornell and Mr. and Mrs. Harley Wyant and family of Canisteo. Dawn Wyant and Patricia Acker were week-end guests of their aunt and grandfather.

Mrs. Daniel Redmond, Miss Sabrey Stephens and Miss Grace Young went to Beuna Vista June 30th and called on Mrs. Jack Stewart who came home with her daughter and was guest at the Redmond home until Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Sherman and four daughters of Waterville were guests of her aunt, Mrs. Everett Osmin Monday to Thursday. They also visited her mother, Mrs. George Puffer and sister, Mrs. Thomas Hughes and family of Canisteo and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Heckman and family of Greenwood. Thursday the Sherman family and Heckman family went to Grand Island and camped for two days.

Mr. and Mrs. Reed Sampson, Karen and Judy Sampson of Niagara Falls were week-end guests of their aunt, Mrs. Everett Osmin. Karen is staying with Miss Valencia Greene for the summer.

Mrs. M. P. Wheeler is visiting cousins this week at Weston and Keuka.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Redmond and Mrs. J. H. Goodno and John Redmond were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Redmond at West Greenwood the Fourth of July.

Mr. and Mrs. Alton York attended the Smorgasbord Dinner at Troupsburg the Fourth of July.

The Greenwood Volunteer Firemen entered competition at Andover Fourth of July Celebration, winning in three events. The Town was well represented at Andover.

Milford Atkins of California called on his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Stephens last week. He is visiting his daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Blodgett and family at Lima. They all called on the Stephens Tuesday.

Miss Ruby Tyler of Hornell, Mrs. Mary Robbins of Canisteo, Miss Sabrey Stephens and Miss Grace Young called on Misses Rose Ellen and Lizzie Sweeney in Rexville Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hunt and family spent last week at their cottage at Waneta Lake. Mrs. Hunt, Terry and Susan were home Monday to Wednesday.

Lynn Redmond and a classmate from Buffalo went to Detroit, Michigan last week-end for the wedding of a classmate from Alleghany College.

Greenwood Central School News

At the annual Commencement Exercises held the last of June at the Greenwood Central School, 24 seniors were graduated. Reverend Bradley Wood gave the invocation for the Commencement Exercises.

Howard Kilbury, Jr., music teacher, played the organ for the processional and directed the senior ensemble in two numbers.

Roger York delivered the Salutatorian's address. Diane Smith and Mary Sky, Co-Valedictorians, delivered the Valedictorian addresses.

George Tubbs, Vice Principal, presented awards to seniors as follows: The Balfour Award and Lincoln Key - Mary Sky; Babe Ruth Awards - William Lewis and Diane Smith; First State Bank Award for recognition in Commercial - Maureen Cheesman; The First State Bank also presented a $50 Savings Bond certificate with this award; The Lillian Bird English Award from the Faculty Association - Mary Lou Harkenrider; PTA keys for the highest averages in various subjects were presented to the following: Mary Sky - Home Economics; Diane Smith - Science; Mary Lou Harkenrider - Music; The Senior Citizenship Award sponsored by the D.A.R. was presented this year to Mary Sky; Betty Crocker Award - Mary Ellen Bolam; American Agriculture Award - Barbara Meehan; DeKalb Award - Kevin O'Brien; Andwell Milk Producers Award - Roger Mills and Kevin O'Brien; Proctor & Gamble award - Maureen Cheesman; Danforth Foundation Award certificate and book - James Feenaughty and Joan Spencer; Bausch & Lomb Science Award - Diane Smith; Reader's Digest was presented to the class Valedictorians.

Following presentation of these awards, Terry Hunt, Student Council President, presented awards to the senior class that they had earned through the Student Council Program during the past year. Principal Robert Hoagland presented the Greenwood Memorial Scholarship Awards on behalf of the Greenwood Memorial Scholarship Committee and this year's selection were Mary Ellen Hanbach, Diane Smith, and James Feenaughty. Following presentation of awards, diplomas were presented to the graduating class of 1968 by Richard York, President of the Board of Education. Rev. Vincent Collins pronounced the Benediction.

The following seniors graduating this year were:

- Mary Ellen Bolam
- Larry Dean Burdick
- Maureen Cheesman
- Wayne Dixon
- Teresa Edwards
- James Feenaughty
- Mary Ellen Hanbach
- Ronald Greene
- Roger Mills
- Kevin O'Brien
- Jan Sluyter
- Glenna Tuttle
- Diana Hyland
- Bradley Lewis
- Becky McClintock
- William Lewis
- Roger York
- Diane Smith
- Mary Lou Harkenrider
- Barbara Meehan
- Edward Mullen
- Maria Sky
- Joan Spencer
- Judy Zeager

Keep On Buying Savings Bonds