Allegany-Steuben Holstein Club To Hold Black and White Show

The Allegany-Steuben Holstein Club will hold its 3rd Annual Black and White Show on Saturday, August 3 at the Allegany County fairgrounds at Angelica, New York. An effort was made to find a suitable place for the show in a more central location but without success. The facilities and the hospitality at Angelica compensate for the distance that the Steuben County dairymen will have to travel.

James Repard of Canandaigua will be the official judge for the event. Anyone in the two counties owning registered Holsteins is eligible to participate. Entry blanks are being mailed out; anyone not receiving one should contact Thomas P. Kane, Addison, N. Y., chairman of the show. Ribbons will be awarded to the winners of each class. Highlight of the show each year is the presentation of special trophies for Grand Champion of the show. Three Best Females bred by exhibitor; Best Udder of the Show; and Produce of Dam. There will be special awards for junior members.

Serving on the committee with Mr. Kane are Neil DeMun of Troupsburg; Francis Meehan of Rexville; Dick Bossard of Canisteo; Art Williams of Houghton; Alton Dunlap of Cuba and Richard Decker of Franklinville.

Keep On Buying Savings Bonds

Star-spangled way to sweeten up your future

The old American proverb says, "money isn't everything, but it sure helps."

And that goes double for the money you put in U.S. Savings Bonds. Because this money helps two ways.

First, it helps your future. Putting youngsters through college. Building homes and summer cottages. Buying cruises for you and the spouse. You dream it, Bonds can deliver it.

Second, it helps your country now, by making Uncle Sam a stronger influence in an unsettled world.

Your fellow Americans have tucked over 47 billion dollars into U.S. Savings Bonds. Why not join them? There's no safer investment anywhere in the world.

Quick facts about Series E Savings Bonds

- You get 8 1/2% more money when they mature (7 years, 6 months)
- You pay no state or local tax and can defer the federal tax until the Bonds are cashed
- You can get your money when you need it
- Your Bonds are replaced free if lost, destroyed or stolen

Keep freedom in your future with U.S. SAVINGS BONDS
