Notes For Young
 Homemakers To Appear

The Home Economics Division of Cooperative Extension in Alle-gany County is sponsoring a letter series 'Notes For Young Homemakers'. It has been specially designed to reach many busy young homemakers in Allegany County.
 "Notes For Young Homemakers" is sent in the form of a weekly letter with a leaflet enclosure designed to appeal to the beginning homemaker. Each week for 12 weeks, useful information for young married women is sent by mail.

Among the topics covered in the letters are buying, preparing and storing food; housecleaning; removing spots and stains; brightening the family wash; textile labeling and shopping for credit. The letters carry reliable, up-to-date information to help the young married woman to a better consumer and homemaker. The series is free and available to woman married five years or less.

Anyone who knows a young married woman residing in Allegany County who would like to receive this information should send the homemaker's name and address, and number of years she has been married to the Home Economics Division, P. O. Box 566, Belmont, N. Y. 14813 by September 1, 1968.
