In Memoriam

There comes a time in every-one's life when a dreaded thing becomes a reality. Such is death. People in Andover, especially the people in school, were saddened by the loss of a third grader, Kevin Slade. Our sympathy is extended to Kevin's family in their bereavement.

New Teacher

Andover is pleased to have as one of its new teachers this year, Mrs. Michael Brace. Mrs. Brace is presently teaching Kindergarten.

She graduated from Mansfield State College with a major in Home Economics. Some of her favorite pastimes are sewing and all kinds of sports.

Mrs. Brace resides on Pleasant Avenue with her husband, who is the High School History Teacher and their little daughter Theresa, aged nine months.

Everyone at A.C.S. wishes you happiness, Mrs. Brace, and we all hope your experiences here are rewarding.

Senior Interview

This week we're interviewing Donald William Billings, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Billings. Donald was born September 26, 1951. He has four sisters and three brothers.

In Belmont Donald is taking auto mechanics. His activities have been F.F.A. for one year and a baseball manager for one year. His favorite hobby and sport is hunting. Next year Donald plans to enlist in the Navy or Air Force. The students of A.C.S. wish Donald the best of luck in whatever he may do. Good luck, Don!

Last Year's Seniors

by Diane Leon
What are the last year Seniors doing this fall? After graduating, each one went his own way to start plans for his future. Let's take a look at some of these plans.

Our 1968 Valedictorian, Mary Ellen Corwin, is attending the University of New York State at Albany. The 1968 Salutatorian, Rosemary Baker is attending St. Bona's.

Joe DeRemer, Charlie Joyce, and Susan Reil, all members of Hall of Fame, are also continuing their education. Joe is attending St. Bona's; Charles Joyce is attending Cornell for Liberal Arts with thoughts of going into law. Susan Reil is going to Cazenovia College.

Joseph Baker is now married to Linda Hurd from Scio. Mary Alvord is working at the Big N. Roger Barnes will soon be leaving for New Platz, majoring in art education. Betty Burch is attending the Genesee Community College and is taking the Liberal Arts transfer program. Elmer Bird has entered the curriculum for Measurement Science at Ag-Tech in Alfred. Gary Bixby is planning on making the Air Force his career. Gayle Clarke is attending the Olean Business Institute. Reba Burton and Nelda Greenfield will soon be hearing wedding bells.

Debbie Fox has entered the Arnot Ogden School of Nursing in Elmira. Good luck Debbie. Bob Emery is working at the Worthington. Martha Green is attending Alfred Ag-Tech, taking the courses for executive secretary. ACS wishes you much success in the future Marty.

Randy Gallagher is working at the Gulf Station in Andover at the present, but Randy has thoughts of entering the Air Force. An Andover basketball star, John Hames, is taking retailing at Alfred Ag-Tech. Dave Harris is now working at the Gulf Station in Andover. Walter Hurlburt is attending the Ag-Tech at Alfred.

Our folk singer of Andover, Susan McClure is attending Corning Community College for the Liberal Arts transfer program. David Leon is also taking the Liberal Arts transfer program, but he is attending the Genesee Community College in Batavia. Bob Post too, is attending the Genesee Community College.

Nick Moline and Tom Ordiway have enlisted in the U. S. Air Force.

Karen Pease has plans, possibly in the future, to attend the Central City Business Institute of Syracuse. Dale Polmateer is at Alfred University, congratulations on your scholarship, Dale! Gary Rosman is attending Alfred Ag-Tech for the business course. Barb Rouse is a nurse's aide in the Warsaw Hospital. Pam Schrader is taking the nursing program at Alfred Ag-Tech and Eddie Sackett is taking Business Horticulture at Alfred Ag-Tech.

Jeff Stephens is enrolled at Fredonia, majoring in music. Your future looks very successful Jeff.

Charlie Nevol is working with Kenny Waters. His plans for the future are undecided. Dave Billings is working at the Big N.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Brace are enjoying the baby sitting, of a most responsible girl in the person of Carolyn Perry. Darlene Lehman is working in Alfred.

There are a few June graduates about whom we could get no information. However, we have listed many of the graduates and their plans. If you know of a June graduate we have missed, please contact the Hi Herald.

School Fair

It's that time again. The School Fair is being held Thursday, September 26. Be sure to plan to come and have your children exhibit the products of their talents. See you there!
