Give for a Worthy Cause!

The Red Cross Drive is underway at Andover Central School and throughout the area.

Some may complain that all they ever do is to give money for something. But in time of disaster and misfortune, the Red Cross is the first organization to help in any way they can.

Countless pints of blood have been supplied by the Red Cross to wounded soldiers, who might otherwise have died.

Therefore, a plea to everyone - give as much as you can. A large part of your donations are used right here in this county.

Christopher Columbus

Christopher Columbus, discoverer of America, was one of the greatest seaman and navigators of all time.

Columbus Day honors the day that this great man discovered America. It is celebrated on October 12, a legal holiday throughout the United States.

Students To Attend School One Half Day October 17

The students of Andover Central School will attend a morning session only on Thursday, October 17.

The faculty will remain at school to complete forms for the Basic Educational Data System.

Senior News

The Senior Class would like to thank Mr. Collins and Mr. Brace for the time and effort they so willingly gave for the Chicken Bar-B-Q.

Hal Sisson and Noreen Thorp will represent the Senior Class on WJ.SV Radio Saturday morning.

Representatives Visit School

Two representatives, one from the Eastern Baptist College at St. Davids, Pa., and another from the Educational Institute of Pittsburgh, visited school on Monday.

New Teacher

by Bob Lynch

This week the Hi Herald has the special honor of interviewing a new and former teacher, namely Mrs. Gwenette Boyce.

Mrs. Boyce attended Kent State University at Kent, Ohio for two years and the next two years at Geneseo where she received her Bachelor's Degree in Education.

Mrs. Boyce has two children, one son and one daughter. Her son, Darin, is now employed with the U. S. Weather Bureau at the Cleveland International Hopkins Airport.

In Mrs. Boyce's spare time she enjoys music. She likes playing the piano and especially the organ.

Seventh Graders Compete In Red Cross Essay Contest

Students in Mrs. Burger's Seventh Grade English Classes competed in an essay contest. The topic was "Why I should Support the Red Cross".

Monday - David Haugh
Tuesday - Judy Bliss
Wednesday - George Burger
Thursday - Elaine Bronson
Friday - Kim Baker
Mrs. Shear judged the essays.

Senior Interview

by Grace Herr

This week's special senior, Lawrence David Clarke, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Clark. He was born February 20, 1950.

Vacation

The students of Andover Central School will enjoy a day of vacation on Friday, October 18, while the teachers are attending the Central Western Zone Conference in Rochester.

Scholarship Exams

by Jeanne Atwell

Most of the Senior Class took their Scholarship Exams Thursday, October 3. These tests determine what percentage of students in New York State will get Regents Scholarships.

Roving Reporter

by Cindy Preston

Purple And White

by Mary Howland

The Panthers can appropriately call the past week, "Tie Week". In the first game of the week Jasper and Andover played a tied non-league game.

The big game was with Fillmore, but ended with a 3-3 tie. Fillmore was leading by one goal kicked in by Al Guilford, when Bob Joyce scored three goals for the Panthers.

Andover is still unbeaten in "C" League and holds first place. Let's keep it that way, Panthers! Future action sees Andover at Scio on October 15 and Alfred-Almond on October 17.
