We're glad to state the the Greenwood News will be taken over by your regular reporter Grace

Young in her usual good manner.

Dwight Young of Valley Stream came Saturday to bring his sister, Miss Grace Young to her home and was an overnight guest. Miss Young has been on vacation for a month, as guest of her cousin, Mrs. James Hendy (Catherine Goodno). They flew from Rochester to Chicago and spent the week-end with a son of Mrs. Hendy, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Hendy. Mrs. Hendy and another son, Raymond and Miss Young drove the Southern Route 66 to San Francisco, Calif area. Mrs. Hendy and Miss Young were guests at the home of another son, Mr. and Mrs. James Hendy and two children at San Mateo, California. They visited many points of interest in San Francisco, the beaches and mountain drives that are corkerew curves. Mrs. Hendy took Miss Young to Oakland and called on Mrs. Ory Freedland. She is in good health and interested in hearing about Greenwood. Her daughter, Beatrice, Mrs. William Barney and family live near her. Maurice and his wife live in San Jose, both are teachers.

Miss Young was at San Mateo from September 22 to October 9 when she flew non-stop from San Francisco Airport to Kennedy Airport at New York. She spent two days with her family there and was glad to return home. New York State has as much beauty as other states and compares well with the rest of the country.
