

GREENWOOD NEWS

Grace Young, Reporter

The WSCS met at the United Methodist Church Thursday afternoon for the October meeting. Mrs. Albert Lamphier was leader for the Week of Prayer Meditation. Mrs. Homer Banks read the Scripture. Mrs. Walter Jackson, Mrs. Clarence Stephens, Mrs. Robert Lamphier told about the special projects that will benefit from the Prayer offering. Urban work in Southeast Asia where population in the cities has doubled in the past 20 years and special work at the Jurong Industrial Estate at Singapore. Eighty percent of the workers are unmarried, about the age of 20. A Christian Church was started by the Lutherans and has both interdenominational support and staff. In the United States the program will benefit educational work and building program of 12 mission schools from New Mexico to Puerto Rico. They meet the needs of disadvantaged children of Spanish, negro, and Indian culture.

A community cancer sewing project will be held at the Church Wednesday afternoon in charge of Mrs. Helen Warriner and Mrs. Evelyn Greene. The WSCS will serve dinner at noon Wednesday October 30 for the Annual Agway local meeting. Refreshments were served to eight members by the hostess, Mrs. Clarence Stephens.

Mrs. Jay Bangs was the delegate from the local Chapter Order of Eastern Stars to the Grand Chapter meetings in New York City last week. Mrs. Blanche Wallace took care of baby Page Bangs while her father was in school.

Greenwood Central School was closed Friday when the teachers attended Conference at Rochester. Many students also faculty members have been sick. Mrs. Edington and Mrs. Underwood substituted in the grades and Mrs. Douglas Cornell for School Nurse.

Mrs. John Wallace attended the Bennetts Creek Home Bureau meeting recently, when they sewed cancer dressings. Mrs. Wayne Warriner attended the West Jasper Wesleyan Methodist Missionary meeting Monday night to help them start sewing cancer dressings.

The Rev. Gerald Wolter and Mrs. Daniel Redmond represented the United Methodist Greenwood - Andover Churches at a School for Local Churchmanship Wednesday night at the Trinity Church in Olean. Since the Methodist and Evangelical United Brethren joined some basic changes have been made as a United Methodist Church.

The Birmingham-Burd American Legion Auxiliary has set a special date meeting, October 29 at the Post Home to pack boxes for servicemen. The regular October meeting was held the second Tuesday evening. President, Mrs. Bernice Osmin, presiding. It was decided to sponsor a fund raising dinner in November. The Unit voted to donate $25 to the Gift Shop in the Veterans Administration Center at Bath.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Crittenden, Kathleen Greene, are parents of a son, Dana James, born at the Bethesda Hospital, Thursday, October 10, 1968. Mrs. Crittenden and son returned home Sunday, Oct. 13. Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Merl Greene.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Cady are parents of a daughter born, Saturday, October 12, 1968 at the Bethesda Hospital. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Cady.

Mr. and Mrs. Royce Vanderhoef of Canisteo are the parents of a son born Wednesday, October 16, 1968 at the St. James Mercy Hospital. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Vanderhoef.

Mrs. Edward Mullen attended a Girl Scout Training School at Watson Homestead, Saturday.

Mrs. M. P. Wheeler was a guest Friday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Wilson at Addison, RFD.

Mrs. William McDonough came from Savona Friday and spent the week-end at her home. Mrs. Cora Wagner and Mrs. Alfred Spencer came to bring her and Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. H. Stephenson of Delaware came to take her back to the Spencer home. Two daughters came for the week-end with their mother in Savona.

Mrs. Claude Daggett and Miss Charlotte Daggett of Delavan were week-end guests of their daughter and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Lamphier.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Bangs, Sr., of Syracuse were week-end guests of their son, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bangs.

Mrs. Dan Cauty of Belmont and Dan Cauty Jr., of Rochester were supper guests Saturday of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William McDonough. Mrs. Cauty is now on the nursing staff at the Wellsville Nursing Home. Mr. and Mrs. Allen Edwards and two children of Niagara Falls also called Saturday on their uncle and aunt, the McDonoughs.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Shelley and family of Elkland, Pa., spent Sunday with her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Crittenden and family to see the new baby.

Francis Acker was the installing officer at the West Greenwood Grange on Saturday evening and the next Saturday attended a Deputy School at West Greenwood Grange. Last week, Mr. Acker installed officers Monday night at Hornellsville Grange and Thursday night at Freeman Grange and attended the Spaghetti dinner Saturday night at West Greenwood Grange.

Mrs. Mary Webster of Cleveland, Ohio, came Wednesday and spent the rest of the week with Mrs. Elva Sherman and Clarence Webster. She brought Mrs. Mable Bauer who had been her guest for two weeks. Mrs. Bauer was a Wednesday night guest of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Cobb in Canisteo. Thursday Mrs. Webster took Mrs. Bauer to Corning to the home of her grandson, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Butts and they took her to her home in Poughkeepsie.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton York and Miss Judy York spent last week-end in Washington, D. C. with Miss Betty York.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Streeter were in Perry recently to attend the wedding of Miss Anne Carney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Carney.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Gifford of Buffalo brought her aunt, Miss Sabrey Stephens home Tuesday and were overnight guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Stephens and Mrs. George Metzgar were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Marlin Schnell and family of Youngsville, Pa. Mrs. Schnell is their niece and daughter of the former Marion York.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Underwood and Mr. and Mrs. William Glover are advisors for a newly organized Youth Fellowship of the Andover and Greenwood Churches.

About twenty members of the Greenwood United Methodist Church attended the Hymn Sing at the Andover Church Sunday night. Mrs. Ray Bangs and Mrs. Mark Underwood sang a duet and the Choir sang a number.

Howard Lamphier, sons, Hugh and Harvey, Walter Jackson, Robert Lamphier and son, Dale, Albert Lamphier and Laverne Stephens, went to Lima Monday for the first day of Pheasant hunting.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Mullen, and Miss Donna Mullen went to Geneseo Sunday to take their son, Edward and Miss Patricia Hanbach, who had spent the week-end at their homes.

Miss Diane Smith, Geneseo student, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith at Rexville. She came home with Walter Redmond.

Mr. and Mrs. A. on York, Mrs. Frank Turner and Miss Maria Murphy were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wally Glassier at Bankirk.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Wallace called on Mr. and Mrs. Fred Short at Wellsville Sunday. Mrs. Grace Wallace who had been staying with her daughter, Mrs. Short, came home with her son for a visit. Mr. and Mrs. James Tracy of Dansville were week-end guests and Mrs. Tracy attended Church with her mother, Mrs. Raymond Wallace and Cindy. Marine David Tracy was home and James visited his family.

The Annual Greenwood Central School Alumni Dance is scheduled for this Saturday, October 26 from 9 - 1 A. M., at the School. Officers in charge of arrangements are: President Pat Addery; Vice-President, Emmitt McNeill; Secretary, Evelyn Cornell; and Treasurer, Clair Tracy. This is your time to meet old friends and enjoy a social evening.

Thank you to Mrs. Lana Rogers who kept the Greenwood News coming to Andover.

Merrill Holt and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Wallace attended the wedding of their niece, Cordelia O'Dell and Sgt. Timothy D. Streb at St. Brendan's Church in Almond, Saturday, October 12.

Miss Charlene Holt was a recent patient at the St. James Mercy Hospital.

ELECTION NOTICE

Office of the
Board of Elections
Allegany County

NOTICE is hereby given pursuant to Section 77 of the Election Law that the next General Election will be held Tuesday, November 5, 1968 from 6:00 A. M. to 9:00 A. M., and that the public officers to be voted for within the county of Allegany, State of New York are as follows:

- Election of President and Vice President
 - Associate Judge of Court of Appeals
 - United States Senator
 - 4 Justices of the Supreme Court
 - Representative in Congress
 - State Senator
 - Member of Assembly
 - Sheriff
 - County Treasurer
 - District Attorney
 - Town officers to fill any existing vacancies
- Also two county wide propositions will be submitted to the people for approval. Proposition No. 1 being a salary plan and Proposition No. 2 being an apportionment plan.
- CATHERINE B. DEAN
GERALD N. MABEY
Commissioners of Elections

A moment to be remembered

A funeral service conducted with beauty, dignity and deep reverence will long be dearly cherished in memory.

James B. Mulholland
Funeral Home
Church Street
ANDOVER, NEW YORK

Serving families of all faiths

Sergeant and Mrs. Timothy Streb

Miss Cordelia O'Dell and Sgt. Timothy Streb Wed

St. Brendan's Church in Almond was the setting Saturday, October 12, 1968 for the wedding of Miss Allura Cordelia O'Dell and Sergeant Timothy Donald Streb of Rochester.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gussie L. O'Dell of East Valley Rd., Andover. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Streb Sr., of Rochester.

The Rev. David Lee performed the double ring ceremony assisted by the Rev. Gerald Wolter of the United Methodist Church of Andover and celebrated the nuptial Mass. Wedding music was rendered by the organist, Mrs. Howard Coleman of Karr Valley Rd., Almond.

The altar was decorated with bouquets of white and variegated pink carnations.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a street-length, coat effect dress of Chantilly lace over satin. The dress was fashioned with a bateau neckline, long sleeves, an opened, scalloped front and gathered back accented by a satin bow. Her illusion veil was attached to a satin Dior bow and she carried a bouquet of white carnations and red roses.

Miss Toni L. Streb of Rochester, sister of the bridegroom, was maid-of-honor. She was attired in a pale pink crepe dress with a cowl neckline and topped with a pink Chantilly lace coat. Her illusion veil was caught to a matching Dior bow and her bouquet was fashioned with pink roses and white carnations.

William F. Streb Jr. of Rochester was best man for his brother. Ushers were William Palleschi and Dave Kolb of Rochester and Gary L. O'Dell of Andover.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the Andover Methodist Church social rooms and in the late afternoon at Fisherman's Wharf, Conesus Lake, attended by guests from Rochester, Wellsville, Greenwood, Bliss, Hilton, Dansville, Andover and Greensburg, Pa.

The bride, a graduate of Andover Central School and Rochester Comptometer School, was an employee of the Eastman Kodak Company, Rochester.

Sgt. Streb, a graduate of Aquinas Institute, Rochester, attended St. John Fisher College, also in Rochester prior to entering the service. He is with the U.S. Army on the personnel staff NCO, stationed in Germany, where the couple will reside.

For a wedding trip to an undisclosed destination, the bride wore a gold, green and gray, paid, three-piece suit and black patent accessories.

FOR SALE
Maple Syrup

GALLON $6.00
1/2 GAL $3.50
QUART $1.90
PINT $1.10

Will Mail Anywhere

Also
MAPLE CREAM

Doug York
Andover, N. Y.
Dial 478-4856

Political Advertisement

Political Advertisement

ELECT

HUMPHREY - MUSKIE

CConnell Murphy, Sheriff

Democratic Town Committee