

GREENWOOD NEWS

Grace Young, Reporter

The young people of Western New York and Canada met in Greenwood, October 18th to 20th for a retreat.

There were around 85 from Endicott, Syracuse, Buffalo, Niagara Falls, Rochester, Belmont, Alfred, Lancaster and Niagara Falls, Canada and other places in Canada.

The theme, "It's Happening", was under the leadership of Missionary Cecil Robbins, Russell Reid, Gordon Garrett, Michael Hartwig, Forest Landes and others.

The young boys stayed in Elder Carol Bassett's barn and the girls in Richard Warriner's, it was a real treat to take their sleeping bags and lie in the hay. They enjoyed a harride Saturday night at the Warriner farm with pop corn and marshmallows. They also used the G.C.S. swimming pool Saturday P. M.

The young people in Greenwood are under the leadership of Terry Smith. Much honor to Terry for his invitation to all and his hard work he put into this, to make it such a success.

The consolidation of school is a concern of everyone in these counties. Tuesday night, Greenwood Central School Board of Education: Richard York, President; Walter Jackson, Charles Smith, Wallace Holt, Stanley Holt and Principal Robert Hoagland met at Jasper Central School with the School Boards of Troupsburg, Canisteo, and Jasper about the consolidation of the four Central Schools. The present deadline for a decision to the state is November 8. It was voted to request, as one unit, for extension of time to January 20 to study the State Proposal and possible Alternative. Sunday Richard York, Board President; Charles Smith & Principal Robert Hoagland went to Syracuse to attend the annual meeting of New York State Boards of Education until Tuesday noon.

Mr. and Mrs. Danie Redmond attended the dinner meeting of the New York State Steam Engine Association at the Canandaigua Inn Sunday, October 20.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Caffee were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler Badwin and family of Oxford.

Miss Linda Bassett, daughter of Elder and Mrs. Carol Bassett of the Canisteo Road, has been named to the Chapel Choir at Grace-land College, Lamoni, Iowa. The Choir sings regularly in Campus Worship Services. Linda is a Senior majoring in elementary education.

Elder and Mrs. Carol Bassett, Leroy and Becky Bassett and Mrs. Sally Bassett attended a Church School Institute at the Buffalo Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints over the week-end. Geoffrey F. Spencer of Independence, Mo., Director of the Church School Division of the Department of Religious Education was the guest speaker.

Sunday twenty members of the local RLDS Church went to Niagara Falls. Donald G. Chisworth of Independence, Mo., a member of the quorum of twelve Apostles of the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, was guest speaker at the 11 A. M. Sunday Worship Service. This was part of the Western New York District Conference. Mr. Chisworth, a minister since 1942 and an Apostle since 1950, was also a part of the Annual District Business Meeting at 2 P. M. and an Ordination Service at 3:30 P. M. There was no service in the local church Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lamphier were hosts Sunday at their home on the Canisteo Road for a birthday dinner in honor of Albert Lamphier. There were 17 guests, brothers and sisters of the honored brother: Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Lamphier of Springville; Mr. and Mrs. John Mullen, Mrs. Arthur Lamphier of Canisteo; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Stephens, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Mullen and daughter, Beth, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mullen and son, Dean of the Canisteo Road; and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Lamphier, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Lamphier of Greenwood, R.D. Another brother, Lewis Lamphier of Aconion was unable to come.

The Annual Agway Meeting in Syracuse was held Thursday and Friday last week. Representing the local Agway Mill were: Harold Porter, Store Manager and Directors Robert Swan, Gerald Cornell of Jasper; Clarence Stephens and Neil McCormick of Greenwood and Rodney Plaisted of Young Hickory. The local Mill's annual meeting is at the Methodist Social Hall, Wednesday.

Correction: There are not two Mrs. Bangs. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Duke of Syracuse visited their son, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Duke and Mrs. Duke sang with the choir.

Mrs. Bertha Smith and daughter-in-law, Mrs. Betty Smith and Mr. McCale of Bath were supper guests of his other daughter-in-law, Mrs. Louise Smith and father, B. E. Burger Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Lester Aldrich and family of Vestal were also week-end guests of her mother, Mrs. Louise Smith. Mr. and Mrs. Aldrich came to close their North Hornell home for the winter.

William McDonough was sick last week. His daughter, Mrs. Dan Canty of Belmont was called Saturday and came over for the afternoon. Dan Canty Jr., of Rochester went to Savona and brought his grandmother, Mrs. William McDonough and Mrs. Hulda Spencer to Greenwood Saturday.

Francis Acker spent Thursday and Friday with his sister, Mrs. Lloyd Allen at Hartsville.

Jerry Burd had a poor spell at Ellisburg Tuesday and entered the Bethesda Hospital in North Hornell as a medical patient.

Arehie Stephens was admitted to the Bethesda Hospital Saturday night. He was taken by ambulance.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Wildman of Whitesville called on Mrs. Blanche Wallace Sunday afternoon.

William Edwards, 78, of Wells-ville died Sunday, October 20, at the Jones Memorial Hospital in Wellsville. The funeral and burial were Wednesday in Wellsville. He was a brother of Mrs. Franz Teribury and Mr. and Mrs. Teribury had called at his home two weeks ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Alta York of the Andover Road are parents of a daughter, Ernestine Rebecca, born Wednesday, October 23, 1968 at the Bethesda Hospital, North Hornell. Mother and daughter returned home Friday. Mrs. York is the former Ernestine Hendrickson and her mother has helped her with the family. Mrs. Cecelia York is the paternal grandmother.

Mr. and Mrs. Harland Knight of Jacksonville spent Thursday to Saturday afternoon with her sister, Miss Grace Young.

Mrs. Daniel Redmond attended the Eopnight Meeting in Hornell Thursday night for a lecture on Israel.

The Rev. and Mrs. Eger Williams of Frankport, former Pastor of the United Methodist Churches at Andover and Greenwood called on friends recently.

The Girls Volley Ball Team of Greenwood Central School went to Fred-Almond Saturday and played three games.

Mr. and Mrs. James McCaffrey, son, Robert of Rexville, Mt. and Mrs. James McCaffrey and family of Cortland and Mt. and Mrs. Charles Lewis spent Sunday with their father and grandfather, Thomas Murtry.

More than 87 million pounds of hydrocarbons and oxides of nitrogens will be emitted into the atmosphere annually from motor vehicles alone by the year 2000.

Political Advertising

Political Advertising

Political Advertising

UP - UP - AND AWAY

VOTE

REPUBLICAN

"ROW A"

NIXON

AGNEW

U.S. SENATE

CONGRESSMAN

Jacob K. Javits

James F. Hastings

SUPREME COURT JUSTICES

Wallace J. Stakel

Frederick M. Marshall

Norman A. Stiller

James O. Moore

STATE SENATOR

ASSEMBLYMAN

Jess J. Present

Frank Walkley

SHERIFF

TREASURER

Richard C. Burdick

Edgar C. Dillie

DISTRICT ATTORNEY

Edward F. Mergler

Allegany County

Republican Committee

William B. Harrison, Chairman