

GREENWOOD NEWS

Grace Young, Reporter

New York State Teachers Association has set the week of Nov. 10-16 as American Education Week throughout New York State. Greenwood Teachers Association is sponsoring the observance in the local school. The theme of American Education Week is, "America has a Good Thing Going — It's Schools". The annual Open House will be Friday, November 15 from 7:30 to 9:30 P. M. Parents and friends are asked to visit the school. The American Legion and Auxiliary will be in charge of the parking lot and the registration desk. A coffee hour will be held from 8 - 9:30 P. M. in the Cafeteria for all parents and adults. Student Council and National Honor Society members will serve the refreshments and also act as guides and hall monitors for Open House. Daily topics for the week:

Sunday, Nov. 10 — Stimulate Spiritual and Moral Values.
 Monday, Nov. 11 — Strengthen the Nation.
 Tues. Nov. 12 — Aspire Quality Teaching.
 Wed. Nov. 13 — Provide Equal Opportunity.
 Thurs. Nov. 14 — Foster Life-Learning.
 Fri. Nov. 15 — Provide Economic Prosperity.
 Sat. Nov. 16 — Strive for Healthy Personality Development.

G. C. S. Newspaper the "Fulcrum", editor, Betty Burley, published an edition last week and mailed to local residents in addition to parents.

Miss Becky McClintock became the bride of Jerel Woodworth at the Canisteo Wesleyan Methodist Church, Saturday afternoon, October 26. The Rev. Gerald Wright performed the double ring ceremony. The bride is the granddaughter of Mrs. J. B. McClintock and the late Rev. McClintock of Canisteo and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Woodworth of Canisteo, R.D.

Miss Betty Burley of Greenwood was the maid-of-honor and Misses Karen Woodworth, sister of the bridegroom and Melody Halbert of Corning, cousin of the bride were bridesmaids.

Michael Cheesman of Greenwood was best man for his classmate. William Lewis of Greenwood and Scott Bentley of Maryland, cousin of the bridegroom, were ushers. Lisa Woodworth, sister of the bridegroom and Laurie Kramarik of Elmira, cousin of the bridegroom, were flower girls. Andy Pollock of Pavilion was ring bearer.

A reception for 150 guests followed the ceremony at the Hornell Sportsman's Club. Duane Rhude and the Driftwood Boys furnished music for dancing.

Mr. and Mrs. Woodworth are both graduates of Greenwood Central School. Jerel will work with his father on the farm and they will live in a trailer.

Robert Swan, Agway Director presided at the annual meeting of the Greenwood Mill. Store Manager, Harold Porter reported the 1967-68 business volume was $303,926.00. Edward Linsler of Addison, Area Manager reported the developments within the Agway System, a 12 state area. Directors elected were Douglas Cornell and Albert Lamphier. The meeting, at the United Methodist Social Hall, began with a ham dinner at noon, served by the WSCS. Principal Robert Hoagland gave the invocation.

Greenwood Central School Faculty with their wives and husbands entertained members of the Board of Education and their wives for dinner at the Brae Burn Inn at Dansville Saturday night. Committee in charge was Mrs. Virginia York, Ch., Mrs. Shirley Cook and Mrs. Barbara Duke.

G.C.S. Soccer team won over Belmont in the Quarter-Finals Friday afternoon at Alfred-Almond. The date for the next play-off game was not available.

Mrs. Harriet Redmond and Miss Grace Young attended a Genesee Alumni Dinner of the Steuben County Chapter at the Ponce de Leon Restaurant at North Hornell Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Murray recently bought the Grover Woodworth property next to them on the south from Mrs. Lillian Hartman of Canisteo. He plans to remodel and make two apartments of the house.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Pritchard and family bought the John Murray property on Church Hill from Mrs. Pearl Hillman of Ransomville. Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Murray helped to empty the house for his mother. Some furniture was stored in the Woodworth house. The Murrays plan to hold an auction some time this month. The Pritchard family moved last week from the Reed Lowrey home.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Turner and family and Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Hollingsworth and family moved Tuesday from the upper apartment of the J. B. Ford home to their homes at Milan, Indiana. They lived there for three months. The men were in charge of the new Gas Pipeline from Pennsylvania to hook up with the Home Gas line.

Teresa Edwards, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Edwards, is a member of the Stuben Co-Board Cooperative Educational Service Practical Nursing Program with experience at Bethesda Hospital. The capping ceremony was held October 15 at Irving School, Hornell.

Mrs. Jessie Whiting moved last Thursday from the Simons Convalescent Home in Canisteo to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Teribury at Greenwood.

Mrs. M. P. Wheeler took Mrs. William McDonough and Mrs. Hulda Spencer to Bath and Savona Friday.

Mrs. Howard Sherman, Miss Velma Krusen and Mrs. Pearl Bassett were in Bath Tuesday and called at the Infirmary to see Mr. Charles Bassett and Mr. Park Waters. The ladies also called at the Canaseraga Funeral Home for Mr. Grover.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Hussey faculty members at Roberts Wesleyan College at North Chili, spent the week-end at their home.

Mrs. Reva McCaffery and Miss Mary Thompson of Canisteo called Friday at the homes of Miss Sabrey Stephens, Mrs. Blanche Goodno and Thomas Murray.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Sauter of St. Mary's Pa., and Arlie Bailey of Hornell, called on Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Ford, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Randolph Winship of Wellsville, Mrs. Pearl Bassett of Greenwood and Mr. and Mrs. Leon Burley and three sons of Stephens Mills, were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mitchell and family on the Canisteo Road.

Mrs. Edith Pease of the Andover Road was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Wallace Thursday to Sunday.

Members of the WSCS met at the Methodist Church Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 6 to pack boxes to send to local servicemen.

Sunday, November 10 adults attending the United Methodist Church are invited to a Fellowship Pot-Luck Supper at the church at 6:00. Mrs. Ronald Edington is menu chairman for anyone wishing more information.

Mrs. Lloyd Chaffee was hostess at her home Friday night for a bridal shower for Miss Judy Canfield. Miss Canfield and Larry Wallace were married Saturday, November 2nd.

Local people attending the Woodworth - McClintock wedding in Canisteo included: Mrs. Roy Woodworth, Mrs. George Rollins, Mrs. Larry Woodworth of Hornell; Mr. and Mrs. John Hunt, Mr. and Mrs. William Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Spencer, Miss Beverly Spencer, Mrs. Robert Cheesman and Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Dennison and daughters.

Hallowe'en was quiet in town. The children went from house to house Thursday night for Tricks or

Darlene Ann Lehman

Announce Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lehman of Andover, announce the engagement of their daughter, Darlene Ann to Pvt. Douglas Nye, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Nye of Andover.

Miss Lehman is a graduate of Andover Central School. Pvt. Nye, also a graduate of Andover Central School, is presently serving in the U. S. Army.

Wedding plans are incomplete.

Treats. A school assembly was held at 1 P. M., with a costumed parade of children Kindergarten through Sixth Grade. Parties and refreshments were held in grade rooms.

The Good Will Group of the RLDS Church held a costumed Hallowe'en Party at the Church Monday night.

G.C.S. Nurse - Teacher, Mrs. Charity McCormick, reports the second immunization clinic will be held Thursday, December 5 at 10 A. M. in the Health Office. Dr. Barbara Crothers will be in charge assisted by Public Health Nurse, Mrs. Kathryn Bancroft and School Nurse Mrs. McCormick. Dr. Crothers is now giving the annual physical exam required by law for every child. The annual vision and hearing screening is nearly completed. Parents will be notified of any problems.

The Andover - Greenwood Methodist Fellowship was entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Underwood Sunday evening, October 26 for a Hallowe'en Party. There were 46 youth and advisors. The group met at the Greenwood Church Sunday night, November 3 for a program and worship service.

Greenwood Central School will be closed Monday, November 11, for Veterans Day, also Monday, November 18 the first day of Hunting Season.

Mrs. Margaret Brewster, head of G.C.S. Cafeteria gives the following School Menu for November 1-2-15:

MONDAY — Chili Con Carne, Cabbage Salad, Peanut Butter Sandwich, Pineapple, Chocolate on White Milk.

TUESDAY — Chicken and Gravy on Biscuits, Cranberry Sauce, Buttered Peas, Rolls, Orange Delight, Choc. or White Milk.

WEDNESDAY — Spaghetti with Meat Sauce, Lettuce with French Dressing, Italian Bread, Fruit, Choc. or White Milk.

FRIDAY — Juice, Fish Steak, Tartar Sauce, Creamed Potatoes, Rolls, Fruit Salad, Choc. or White Milk.

Greenwood Brownies Hold Investure Ceremony

The Greenwood Brownies held an Investure at the Greenwood cafeteria this month and twelve proud Brownies were invested into troop No. 168. The new members include:

Veronica Adderly, Annette Ahearn, Kathy Baldwin, Sandra Dennison, Jodi Hall, Pamela Heeman, Annette Pritchard, Janine Quick, Bonnie Siebert, Cynthia Spicer, Sandra Hunt, Kim Moore. The meeting was attended by most of the girls' mothers and the Brownie leaders. The meeting consisted of a Flag Ceremony; Brownie Smile Song; Brownie Promise; Brownie B's; and presentation of the Brownie G.I. Scout pins by leaders, Louise Ahearn and Sharon Harkenrider.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry B. Bush

Miss Reba Luann Burton and Larry Bush Wed

Miss Reba Luann Burton and Larry Bush were united in marriage Saturday, October 19, 1968 at the Independence Seventh Day Baptist Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Weatherly of Andover and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Bush of Mayport, Pa.

The Rev. Robert Buchwalter performed the double-ring ceremony before an altar decorated with vases of bronze and yellow mums and white snapdragons. Mrs. Carolyn Dougherty of Andover was organist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of antique satin with fitted bodice, lace sleeves and hoop skirts. Her double fingertip veil of silk illusion fell from a pillbox with accents of lace applique and seed pearls. She carried a cascade of yellow and white mums with ivy.

Miss Pamela Schrader of Andover was maid-of-honor. She selected a floor-length gown of royal blue velvet and light blue crepe with an empire waistline. Her veil was caught to a blue bow headpiece, and she carried a bouquet of white roses.

The bride's mother wore an A-line knit dress of sapphire blue with white accessories and a corsage of white pompons. The mother of the bridegroom selected a beige knit suit with brown accessories and a corsage of bronze pompons.

Jon Wehtenberg, a Ellington was best man for his brother in law. Ushers were Everett Markham of Greenhurst, and Iavern Marham of Stockton, the bridegroom's uncles.

A reception for approximately 125 guests was held at the Andover Grange, which was decorated with vases of bronze and yellow mums. The bride's table was centered with a four tiered wedding cake.

Out-of-town guests were present from Arkport, Wellsville, Alfred, Greenwood, Utica, Ellington, Greenhurst, Stockton, Batavia, Forestville, Conewango Valley and Mayport.

The bride is a 1968 graduate of Andover Central School. Mr. Bush was graduated from Randolph School in 1966 and in 1968 from State University Agricultural and Technical College at Alfred, where he majored in electronics. He is employed at General Dynamics, Rochester.

Mr. and Mrs. Bush are residing at 2 Chapin St., Mt. Morris.

Complete Service For Your Car

Bring Your Car Troubles To Us

CENTER STREET GARAGE
 George Mingus Dial 478-3195