National Book Week

Do you know what's going on in this world? What about the Past? They're both important. This week is National Book Week and its purpose is — that you should read.

Reading can be a terrible thing sometimes, especially for students. True, a math book doesn't make very interesting reading, but it does teach us something. All books teach something. How would we know of the past, except for books? Everything we read has some element of past events within its covers. History is in the making everyday so new accounts are constantly being written.

How do we keep up with the present? Read newspapers and magazines. These everyday publications are really books in themselves.

Most libraries carry these as well as books. So there's really no excuse for a person not reading something.

Reading is a worthwhile habit for everyone. Not only does it aid you in your daily schoolwork, but it will also be one good habit which will be an asset in later life. Therefore, one last word — READ!

W. V. Nevins Contest Exam

by Diane Leon

Two A. C. S. students, Libby Ullsh, a senior, and Cindy Preston, a junior, accompanied by Mr. Mumma, will participate in a special exam at Alfred University on Saturday, November 23. Libby and Cindy, representing Andover Central School will be among the 145 students from 15 schools to register and take this mathematics exam.

This contest exam is being offered to high school students in New York State. A former professor at Alfred University, who was greatly respected by everyone.

After Professor Nevins' death it was decided that memorial fund in his honor be set aside for awards for students receiving the highest grades in this exam. This is the first year for this contest and should prove to be most successful.

Student Council News

The Student Council wishes to thank all who attended the dance Friday night. We also thank the Bande-Couts from Wellsville for playing for us.

Use the Classified Ad Section.

"Annie Get Your Gun"

The seniors will present the three-act comedy, "Annie Get Your Gun", this Friday, November 22 at 8:00 P. M., in the school auditorium. There is also a matinee for all students on Friday afternoon. Tickets are now on sale. The prices are: $1.00 for a reserved seat; 75c for adults and 50c for students. The play is being directed by Mrs. Kessler and is being produced by special arrangement with the Dramatic Publishing Company.

The Seniors would also like to thank the seamstresses — Mrs. Grace Brundage, Mrs. Martha Greene and Mrs. Walter.

Downbeats

The Area-All State Concert held in the Hornell High School on Saturday night was most successful. The students who participated worked very hard and should be commended for their effort. Those representing Andover were: Richard Godown, Bob Boyer, Cheryl Pelton, and Cindy Preston — Senior High Choir; Linda Leon and Mary Howland — Senior High Band; Sharon Lewis, Jeanne Atwell, Yvonne Mattison and Brenda Preston — Junior High Choir.

Last, but not least, Mrs. Potter and Mrs. Boyer should receive a special "Thank You" for all the time they spent helping these students with their music for the concert.

Roving Reporter

by Tom Dixon

I asked several people around school, what they thought the word "frump" means. Here are some of their ideas:

- Rick Schrader — a bathtub
 - Bob Lynch — the process of eating bubbles
 - Ruth Shear — A V W with but turtles, but no horns
 - Linda Dunham — Dr. Ed class
 - Diane Leon — a frog with the bumps
 - Dick Joyce — a sickness that Welsh girls get
 - Noreen Thorp — Nadine Weber in the jungle
 - Linda Leon — a sick dog
 - Judy Hyland — having fun
 - Joyce Dibble — a fat old lady
 - Cheryl Pelton — no comment
 - Mr. Brace — no comment
 - Nadine Weber — Noreen at minecrest
- The true meaning of "frump" is a cross old fashioned woman, somewhat dowdily dressed.

Senior Interview

by Cindy Preston

This week, the arrow of recognition points toward Aaron Dale Foster, a senior at Andover Central School. Dale, the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Foster, was born March 13, 1950.

In high school, Dale has majored in Industrial Arts and Art. He has been in Library Council for two years and Red Cross for one year. Dale played the part of Bob in the Junior Play this Friday night. His leisure time is spent delving in art and being an active member of the Grange.

When Dale graduates, he plans to take over the operation of his father's farm. We, at Andover, wish Dale the best of luck in his future years.
