Flower Arrangement Course Open To Area

Area residents are being given an opportunity to enroll in an evening course in flower arrangement which will be offered starting Dec. 13 under the auspices of the Division of Continuing Education at State University Agricultural and Technical College at Alfred.

Reed Lowrey, director, said the course will be taught by Morris Mead, manager of the college's flower shop.

The first two weeks of the 10-week course will be devoted to Christmas decorations and arrangements. Classes will be two hours in duration once a week and will meet Wednesdays from 7:30 to 9:30 p. m. at the Anderson Floral Center on Main Street in Alfred.

There will be a break in the schedule for the holidays and then classes will resume on Jan. 3d.

Information regarding tuition and registration fees is available by writing Mr. Lowrey at his office in the college's Administration Building or by phoning him at Alfred 607-587-6101.

was decided to limit this to one practice per week after the first game had started.

The Board of Education reviewed and accepted the annual audit of school district records as completed by Dana Pickup, C.P.A.

The school tax collector's report was presented to the Board and indicated what taxes has been collected and the balance that had been returned to the county. It was noted that a higher percentage of the taxes had been paid early to avoid the fees and also most of the taxes had been paid before the dead line.

The Board members reviewed the annual budget and a statement as to the amount of each budget item that remained unexpended in the current budget.

The Student Council of Greenwood Central School sponsored Halloween activities for the benefit of all of the school's students on October 31. A party for the elementary grades was held during the afternoon, at which time proper recognition was given to the chosen winners of the various categories.

Winners of the various categories in Grades Special through 6 respectively, were: Prettiest, Shirley Hill, Pauline Sky, Bonnie Dennison, Shelly Aldrich, Veronica Adderly, Susan Hunt, Joan Miles, Laurie Seibert; — Spookiest: Janet Sawyer, Sidney McNeil, Kelly Murphy, Bradley Hoyt Sandy Dennison, William Law, Becky Bassett and Greg Hunt; — Most Original: Laurie Wallace, Bradley Spicer, James Putnam, Cindy Spicer, John Mills, Larry Meehan and Jeanne Hanbach. The Grand Prize winners from respective categories were: Veronica Adderly, Sidney McNeil, Brad Spicer, and a three-toke, Eileen McCormick, Debbie York and Terri Rollins.

Judges for the event were: Mrs. June Rollins, Mrs. Flo Hardenberg, Terry Beckwith, Mrs. Grace Woodworth, Mrs. Barbara Duke, Mrs. Jen Downey, Mrs. Theresa Beckwith and Mrs. Jean Hollenbeck.

An evening party for Grades 7 - 12 was held at the school during the evening. Refreshments were in charge of Grades 9 and 10, entertainment by Grade 11 and supervision was handled by Grade 12.
