

Cat Care Facts Offered Free By Humane Group

A newly-published pamphlet entitled "Basic Cat Care" is being offered free to pet owners by the Animal Protection Institute of America, a national humane society based in Sacramento, Calif. The pamphlet covers essential requirements for pet health, feeding, grooming, safety and compliance with the law. Belton P. Mouras, API president, in announcing the offer, said the new brochure is easy to understand, and was written with the hope of raising the level of care provided pet cats throughout the nation. The free pamphlet may be obtained by writing Cat Care, Box P, Sacramento, California, 95813.
