Motor Vehicles Bureau Announce New Law

As of January 1, any motorist ordered to surrender his driver's license or vehicle registration must turn it in to the Department of Motor Vehicles within 48 hours or be subject to a fine of $15.

This civil penalty will be in addition to the present provisions of law which make it a misdemeanor for any person to fail to immediately surrender a driver's license or registration certificate which has been suspended or revoked.

Commissioner Vincent L. To-fany said that the new legislation was designed to remove the uninsured or unsafe motorist from the highways and to provide more incentive for the individual to comply with the suspension or revocation notice.

The fine will be levied if local police officers are requested to enforce the order. New licenses or registrations may not be obtained until the fine has been paid.

Surrenders are ordered when a license or registration has been suspended or revoked for violations of the Vehicle and Traffic Law, which include driving an uninsured vehicle. Notice or confirmation of the suspension or revocation is mailed to the motorist by the Department. Proof that such notice has been mailed is obtained from postal authorities.

The law permits the Department to presume that the motorist has received the notice within five days after it has been mailed to the address which appears on the license or registration certificate.
