New Missionary Assigned To Area

Presently working in the Andover area as missionaries for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints, are Elder Clark Baron and Elder Michael Prows. Elder Baron has been serving in the local area for the past few months but Elder Prows was just recently transferred here from Sidney, New York.

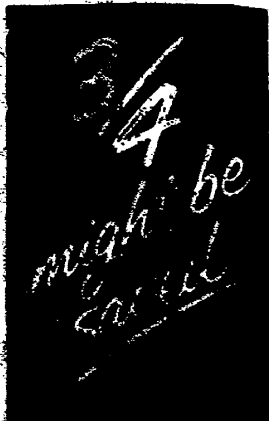

These two young men are part of the 13,000 missionaries that are stationed throughout the free world. They serve voluntarily at their own time and expense, spending from 18 months to two years in the field. Elder Prows is a native of New York and is a member of the Church of Jesus Christ, as a resurrected personage, coming to ancient America in the year 24, A.D. While here He taught His gospel to a great civilization of Lamanite people who left Jerusalem in the year 600 B.C. The record of these people is known today as "The Book of Mormon."

"We have found the local people quite friendly so far," stated Elder Baron, "and also interested in learning more about Christ. We appreciate the Christian hospitality that the people in the area show to us as we speak with them."

"We feel that we have a very important message for all believers in Christ. Before leaving Salt Lake City, we were set apart as 'duly ordained ministers of the Gospel, and given authority to preach the principles of the Gospel and to administer the ordinances thereof.' We carry certificates with us at all times which bear the signature of the present Prophet of the Church, David O. McKay, to this effect.

"When our mission services are completed, we will be honorably released, and return home to complete our education, or to follow other vocational aims," concluded Elder Baron.
