of RD 2, Hornell were honored at a silver wedding anniversary open house Saturday afternoon February 1st at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Donald Isaman.

Alfred University has launched a major campaign to revamp its nursing program, shifting emphasis from clinical preparation to hard science and social science studies. Conceding the need for change, University President Leland Miles has announced that a key step in restructuring the program has been the appointment of a new Nursing School Dean. She is Mrs. (Virginia) Barker, formerly assistant professor of nursing education at Indiana Central College in Indianapolis, and prior to that assistant director of nursing education at Christ Hospital School of Nursing in Cincinnati.

Admiral Imperial Chief, a five-year old registered Holstein Bull, weighing 3,080 pounds, has been sold to the Curtis Breeding Service, Cary, Ill., by his breeder Francis Meehan of Rexville.

Anne Speary of Fairport, an attractive, red-haired Alfred University coed has been chosen "Miss Hope-1969 of Allegany County". Miss Speary, a 21-year-old senior in the School of Nursing, will represent the Allegany County Unit of the American Cancer Society in a statewide contest in Syracuse next month.

Appointment of Ruth Brown of Wellsville to serve as Campaign Chairman of the 1969 Heart Fund Campaign has been announced by F. Richard Meeker, county chairman of the Allegany Heart Fund. Mr. Meeker said that the campaign would have a goal of $8,000 in Allegany County. Miss Marjorie Goodrich was named chairman for Andover.

Pupils from five high schools were awarded ton ratings at the vocal and instrumental contest held at Canaseraga Saturday by Allegany County School Music Association. The coveted A-6 award (A for highest level of competence, 6 for performance of most difficult music) were given to performers from Andover, Bolivar, Fillmore, Rushford and Wellsville high schools in the contest which attracted approximately 225 students from ten county high schools. Andover students receiving A-6 ratings included Richard Godown (vocal) and Cindy Preston (clarinet). The contest was conducted by Mrs. Shirley Goodman vocal music teacher at Canaseraga, assisted by Nathan Hardy instrumental music teacher at the same school.

Approximately 100 friends and relatives were on hand to help Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kruger of North Branch Street, Friendship, celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary at an open house held in their home, Sunday.
